Students' Union

What an exciting year it has been at Harry Ainlay! This year's theme, "Stepping Forward", doesn't do justice to all the work and effort put into the activities throughout the year. We took a HUGE leap Ainlay! With all the students and staff that put in all the extra hours, it's no wonder events and activities such as Touch of Class, Aloha Ainlay, and Culture Festival turned out to be a great success, not to mention all of the rotunda activities and sporting events. "Stepping Forward" is exactly what we did. We stepped forward in our school and also in our community. It continues to amaze the community and even ourselves with just how much dedication is portrayed by students and staff daily, monthly, and all year round!
Go Titans Go!

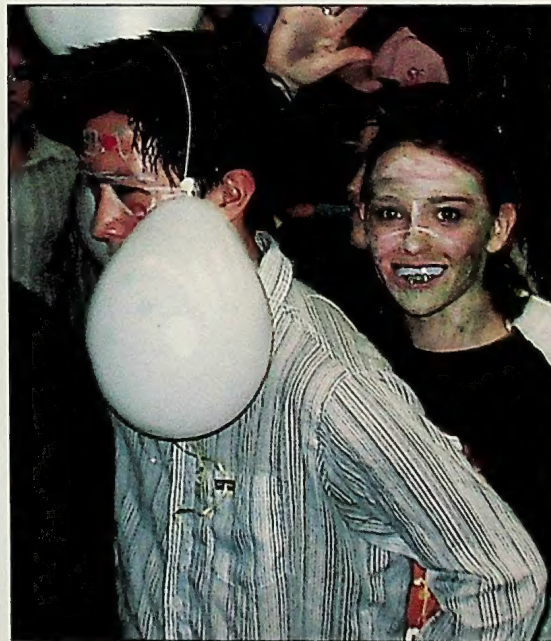

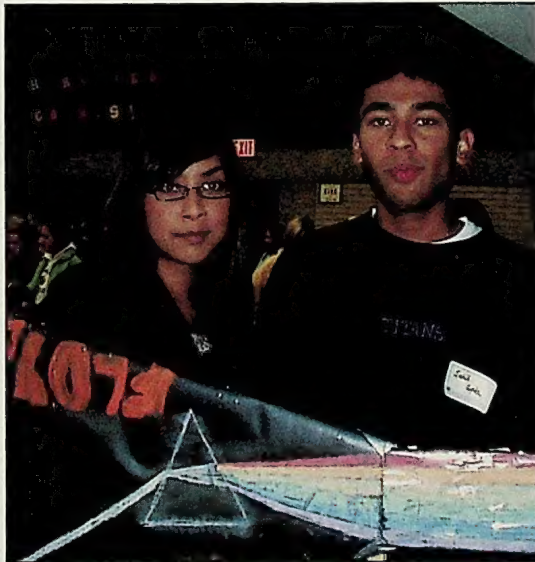

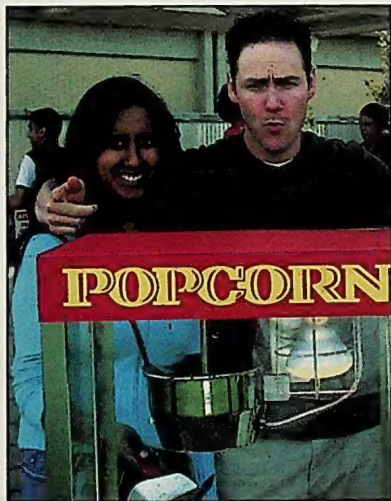

As I reflect back on my years as a Titan, I continue to be amazed at the diverse and incredible talents that each person at Harry Ainlay possesses. You have surpassed my expectations as an impeccable student body and staff and I am proud to have spent my years of high school with all of you. You have enriched my high school experience and together we have created unforgettable memories. High school is just the beginning of our lives as students. Each of us has the potential to succeed and we are all able to step forward to embrace any challenge. Fellow students, I hope that in the future you are able to look back and say proudly that you were and always will be a Titan. I wish you all the best in your future endeavors and I want to thank each and every one of you for giving me the opportunity to serve you as your Students' Union President. It has been an honour.

Principal's Message

During the 2005-06 school year, our Students Union theme was "Step Forward". As we look back upon this year, we do so with incredible pride in our collective efforts towards that goal. You, our students, have lived up to the school's motto "In Omnibus Excelsior – in all things excellence" on a daily basis. I hope you all can look back at this past year and identify the positive contributions you have made to the school.

As Titan's, you are members of a large community and, as such, have responsibilities to maintain a good character, strive for excellence, be responsible community members, life-long learners and people of good character. All of you, in one way or another, have been involved in the very life of this school and have made it a better place to be for all of us. From your very first day in grade ten, when you were introduced to our school by the Link Crew, you became Titans. This is your link to this school now and will continue to be so in the future. It is a commitment to your fellow students to ensure that the proud traditions of Harry Ainlay live on.

These pages will provide you with memories of your time at Harry Ainlay: friends, the trials and tribulations of becoming adults and the struggles and conquests you experienced. Most importantly, as you look back, you will see the formative years of your life leading to the path of varied successes you will all achieve.

Your years at Harry Ainlay have left you prepared for the next stages of your life and readied you to take the next step forward. Whether this is the next grade, post secondary education or the world of work, do so with commitment, passion, enthusiasm and effort. Doing so will honour all you have done at Harry Ainlay.

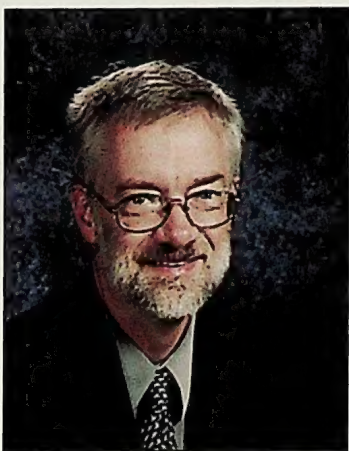

Sincerely,
Mark Liguori, Principal

Amnesty International

Amnesty is a social justice club at Ainlay. Students work to raise awareness, promote global justice, and make a difference. This year, we organized a successful campaign with "Breaking Borders" to raise money for the earthquake in Kashnir, Pakistan. The campaign included letter writing sessions, forums on human rights and activities to promote awareness. We believe "it is better to light a candle than curse the darkness".

Link Crew

This year the Link Crew welcomed over 700 new grade 10 Titans to Harry Ainlay for the 2005-2006 school year. To assist the grade 10's in a smooth transition to high school, the day was fun packed with registration, a school tour, and Link Crew games and activities. This year's executive did an outstanding job as did the dedicated Link Crew Leaders and A-team. The teacher advisors (Mrs. Boyle, Mr. Heidt, Mrs. Hudec, and Mrs. Schwartz) thoroughly enjoyed working with everyone in what was a very successful day.

Breaking Borders

Breaking Borders is a new student group striving to build bridges between individuals of all religions, ethnicities and cultures by seeking to understand the diversity of people. Consequently, club members learn to appreciate how a society is tremendously enriched by education and understanding. Breaking Borders will carry the torch of acceptance, leading the way towards a more broad-minded society. This vision of Breaking Borders may look unattainable but is a challenge the club is willing to embrace. Harry Ainlay can change the world and has taken the first step by creating this club.

Games

School days at noon are a time for some friendly competition in a variety of games. The game "Go" has undergone a major resurgence this year with new international students bringing in their skills. Chess, Risk and a variety of card games are very popular.

Hollywood History Movie Club

The Hollywood History Movie Club meets to watch and discuss Hollywood films. The films, made in both past and present day, concern events which occurred during various points in history. Interesting debates take place after the movie is finished concerning topics of controversial importance. The Hollywood History Club is a fun and educational way to learn about how people lived and worked in the past to make the world we live in today. History is something we can use as a tool to understand why we live the way we do today.

School Reach

School Reach, or Reach for the Top, is a national tournament in which high school teams compete in general knowledge trivia. Questions can be on everything from Nobel Prize winners to the latest celebrity couples. The 2004/2005 school year is off to a great start as the Ainlay School Reach team has been playing well in all of its games and will hopefully continue to do so. Our members bond together and have fun in weekly meetings and make new relations at tournaments. We hope to go all the way and make Ainlay proud. Good luck to this year's talented team!

Speech and Debate

This year, the Speech and Debate Club attended many tournaments, including the ever-so-interesting Lois Hole, Churchill, and Gandhi Tournaments. Harry Ainlay was well represented by our articulate, knowledgeable members. We hope to have an even better turnout next year. Thanks to Ms. Carson, President Reena Herian, and Vice President Andie Bains, for all of their hard work.

The Titanic is Ainlay's official newspaper, edited, distributed, and run by its students with the help of the "deckhand" Mr. Colp. The paper boasts a wide variety of articles, editorials, and comics, all written by Titans themselves. You can find a number of different topics in each issue, ranging from announcements and accounts of various school events, to movie reviews, and even band interviews! The Titanic is an excellent medium for all of Ainlay's aspiring writers, editors, and artists to express themselves creatively, and to present their work to fellow students.

Titans International

Titans International (TI) consists of enthusiastic students who organize monthly activities for international students. Our goal is to assist international students in adjusting to their new surroundings as they may feel intimidated moving away from home and learning in a second language. In addition, through our monthly activities, many friendships are developed. Activities include a Welcome BBQ at Hawrelark Park, pumpkin carving contest, Laser Tag & Bowling, a Christmas party, and sport tournaments. We also offer Conversation Partners and Peer Tutoring for international students interested in improving their English speaking skills or in need for homework assistance. Titans International – Where Titans meet the world!

Harry Ainlay Anime Club

Anime is Japanese animation, similar to American cartoons. It revolves around different themes and characters, sometimes archetypal, sometimes based on real situations, and sometimes with no basis at all from reality. The landscapes tend to be more detailed and realistic, while only the faces of the characters have a "cartoon" look. Anime is targeted mainly at older youth and young adults. The Harry Ainlay Anime Club is a club that promotes the watching and discussion of anime in its purest form, in the original language so that we can get the most out of the experience. So come join us one day, and discover Anime, I'm sure you'll like what you see.

Knitting and Crochet Club

The Knitting and Crochet Club meets every Monday and Wednesday to work on knitting and crocheted projects, including scarves, mittens, hats and teddy bears.

Knitting and Crochet Club president: Veronica Krawcewicz.
Guest Teacher: Melanie Zarchikoff.
Teacher Sponsor: Mrs. C. Boos.
Members include: Claire Tunney, Michelle Tran, Janet Kwan, Jen Yau, Josephine Wong, Danielle Patenaude, Emily de Caen,

Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity is both an independent, charitable housing organization and a great way for Ainlay students to give back to our community. Our club shows how much we care by fundraising through cookie sales and school dances, and by helping build homes for people in need. Our main goal is to raise awareness in our community by getting involved in helping others. We are dedicated to the elimination of poverty "One house and one family at a time."

C.A.S.E. (Collective Association of Special Events)

C.A.S.E. Club. Born from the minds of three young students became a club designed for the raising of school morale; the Collective Association of Special Events. Gathering around them came a group of like-minders who shared their dream: one of peace and harmony. Bringing such radiance as "Things You Drew on the Floor Day," "Fortune Cookie Fortune Day" and "Name Tag Day," they have succeeded in securing C.A.S.E. Club's status as a static school structure for (alliterative) years to come.

Culinary Critics

A club that brings strangers together, forming friendships through a common love of food. Members take time out of their busy schedules for critiquing and tasting sessions at local restaurants renowned for their international cuisine. The Culinary Critics Club, new this year, has proved to be a place for fun, friends and everyone's favourite pastime: delicious food.

Ainlay Book Club

The Ainlay Book Club is an attempt to develop and celebrate a culture of readers within our school community. While there are periodic times set for meetings and occasional events, the most important thing is that our students know that they can read and that somewhere out there in the school are other people who are experiencing the same vicarious thrills and chills. It is an honest attempt to get kids reading for fun, with all of the inherent benefits that can bring.

Character Education Committee

The Character Education Committee is composed of both students and staff. Our aim is to promote the Harry Ainlay virtues of Respect, Responsibility, Fairness, Forgiveness, Honesty and Integrity in positive, proactive ways.

Titan Tributes recognize students who go out of their way to do the right thing.

Cafeteria blitzes encourage cleanliness in our cafeteria, which caters to the needs of over 2,300 students.

Other student and teacher-led initiatives promote an environment that supplements curriculum with character.

The Titan Green - Ainlay Club

This is a new club to Harry Ainlay that started in February, 2006. The representatives and founders of TGAC are highly motivated individuals who are concerned for the well being of animals, nature and the environment.

We pledge our commitment to the betterment of our surroundings at many different levels. We plan to act locally as well as globally. Our focus will be on raising awareness on current environmental issues and animal abuse as well as being proactive.

At our school, we hope to improve the present recycling practices, sponsor projects such as flower planting, cleanup of school grounds and building bird feeders, and offer a variety of fun educational activities on Earth Day. Also, we would like to volunteer at and raise donations for local animal shelters.

One of our long-term goals is to develop an educational program on endangered species of Alberta that would complement the K-6 curriculum. Finally, we hope our voice will reach as far as the Federal Government through our petition writings.

We are more than just an environmental club. We are the Titan Greens respecting all living organisms on this planet.

Encounters With Canada

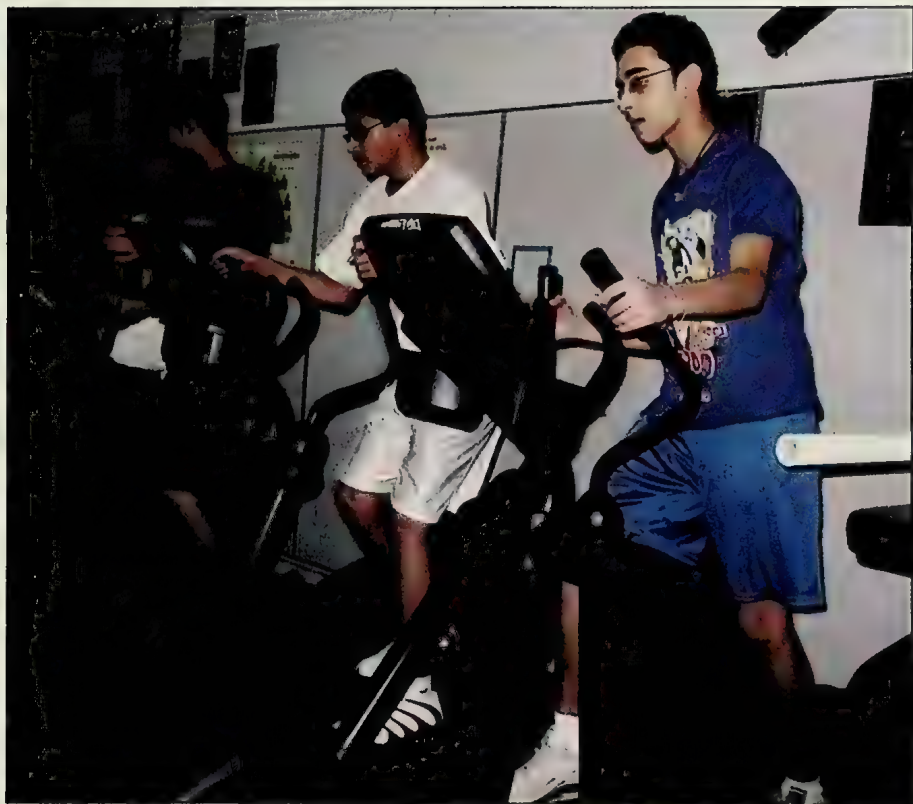

Encounters with Canada is a federal government initiative to bring students together to share in debate, discussion and friendship. There are fifteen topic sessions – covering arts and culture, history, business, science, journalism, medicare and international relations. Encounters with Canada is a fabulous opportunity for students. One week at the Terry Fox Center in Ottawa, 180 high school students from across Canada had an exciting "Canadian" experience for life.

Members Include: Benjamin Terlesky, Jenny Ding, Liane LaFrance, Lana Myroniuk, Kirsten Jette, Jason Motkoski, Boaz Lau, William Li, Gupta Ankita, Jocelyn Shim, Karmen Li, David Lavoie, Eric Rayment-Law, Rachel Duncan, Amy Schwartz

Wellness Centre

Our Wellness Centre has seen its busiest year yet. We have had some exciting updates this year to include more cardio equipment and weights in order to accommodate our ever-growing number of memberships. With more than 500 members, we have seen a uniquely active group of students at our school this year. Keep up the great work Ainlay!

Titan Yearbook

This year marks the 40th yearbook produced by the Titan Tradition Yearbook since the school's opening in 1966. It also marks the first time that Ainlay's yearbook has been produced in full colour. Once again the yearbook staff has pulled together as a team to collect images, design pages and create a book that freezes this year's memories for all time. Thanks to all of the members for their creativity and hours of commitment to producing this year's book.

Manga Club

The members of the Manga Club have weekly lunch hour meetings on Fridays. We analyze Japanese manga books and learn a variety of techniques for manga drawing. We also use some "how to draw manga" books to improve our drawing skills. Our monthly drawing contests help us share the best art work among the members. The works are displayed on the wall of the Japanese classroom. If you like Japanese manga books and drawing manga, come and join us in Room 331!

Citadel Theatre Club

The Citadel Students Club continues to grow at Harry Ainlay, and this year we had 51 participants who viewed the 2005-2006 mainstage productions. Students spoke enthusiastically about the plays that were presented and welcomed the opportunity to learn more about theatre. We look forward to the coming season. Hats off to the Citadel!!!

Theatre Sports

Ainlay's THEATRE SPORTS TEAM is HILARIOUS! These talented improvisers have enough stage presence, charm, and talent to knock you off your seat with laughter! The team competed in the (NOSE BOWL) high school improvisation tournament at the NAIT Shaw Theatre and won a bronze medal. Also, Jessie McPhee was voted first runner up for MVP and now plays professionally with Rapid Fire Theatre. In the provincial improvisation tournament the boys won another bronze medal. The team performed weekly at lunch in our theatre. Team Captain: Jessie McPhee Players: Geran Koornhof, Tim Mikula, Zak Selman Palmer, Ben Terlesky, Joleen Ballendine and Byron Martin.

Travel Club - Europe Trip

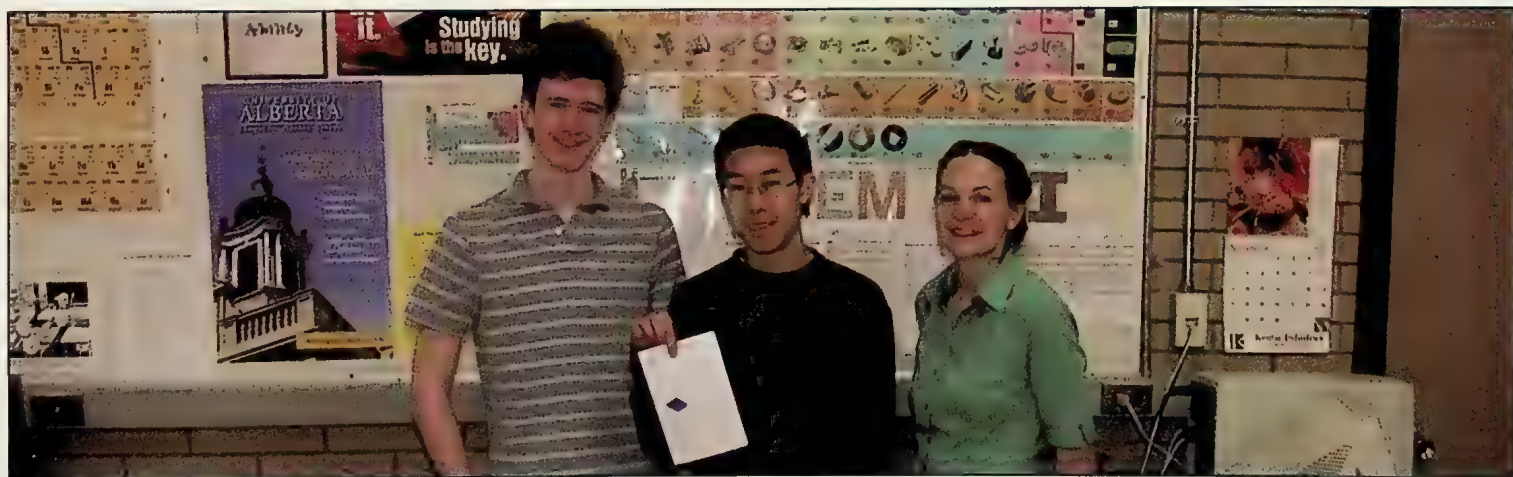

Spring break 2006 will always be remembered by the Titan Travel Club as the best trip ever. Forty-nine Titans crossed the Atlantic to visit France and Italy. The group had a 12 day whirlwind tour of Paris, Nice, Monaco, Florence and Rome. Some of the highlights of the trip were visiting Versailles, seeing where Louis' head was chopped off, taking the high speed train to Nice, walking along the promenade by the Mediterranean Sea, imagining the Gladiators in the Coliseum, bartering for goods from the street peddlers, eating bread for 12 days straight, and then pasta all throughout Italy, visiting a leather factory, perfume factory, wood working factory, cathedrals, churches, statues, more cathedrals, more churches, the Leaning Tower of Pisa...whew!! And so much more!!

Model United Nations

Once again, Harry Ainlay sent the largest and best contingent to the annual HSMUN, the most realistic United Nations simulation in Alberta. The HSMUN allows students to experience the drama and political intrigue of international politics from inside the UN Security Council and various specialized General Assembly committees. This year, more than 40 students attended, representing Sweden, Norway, South Korea, France, Denmark, Iran, Afghanistan, Switzerland and the Democratic Republic of Congo. Ainlay delegates were persuasive and passionate as they represented their countries' positions on such topics as smallpox outbreaks to Iranian nuclear weapons and universal primary education. Eight Titans were recognized for their work - including four of the top six awards: an outstanding accomplishment! Congratulations to the following delegates: Nolan Sawatzky, Sherif Fodz, Sauresh Reddy, Zak Selman-Palmer, Avi Nanda, Sahil Gupta, Ahmed Elmallah, Emily de Caen and Dennis Goulden.

Crystal Growing Competition

Under the guidance of Ms. Pombert, one of Ainlay's teams of crystals growers won the competition at the provincial level. David Hsu and Ray Huot are both in Grade 12 and their 15.7 gram crystal of copper(II) sulfate pentahydrate went on to place fifth in Canada. Congratulations gentlemen!

Science Olympics

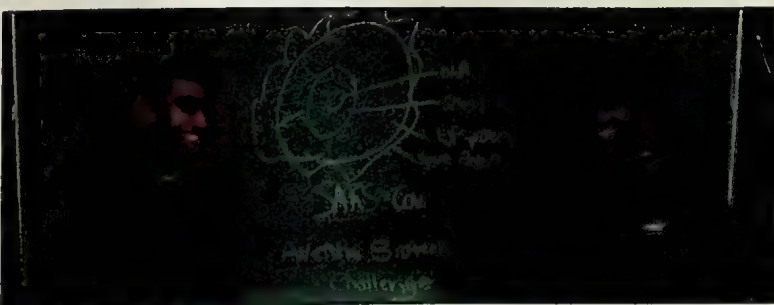

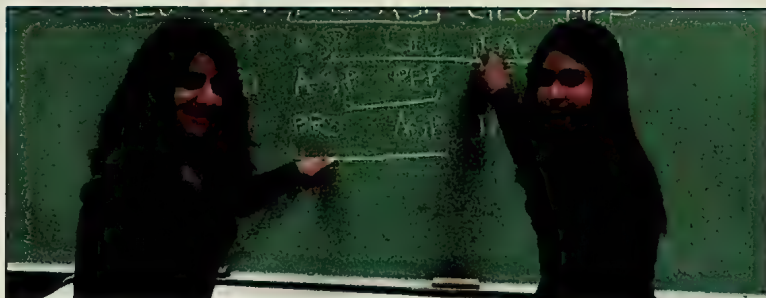

City Champions! This year our Science Olympics team took first place over 25 teams from the Edmonton and surrounding area who participated in this year's challenges. Team #1 constructed a catapult, so well designed, that virtually any distance could be reached. The team overcame all obstacles for their catapult to meet the prerequisite design specifications. Their catapult took the gold medal for this event and their combined scores put them into first place. Team #2 took the silver medal in the enzyme clock event. Both teams made excellent robots out of motors and spaghetti and battled them against competitors from other schools. A successful year for the team.

Aventis Biotechnology Challenge

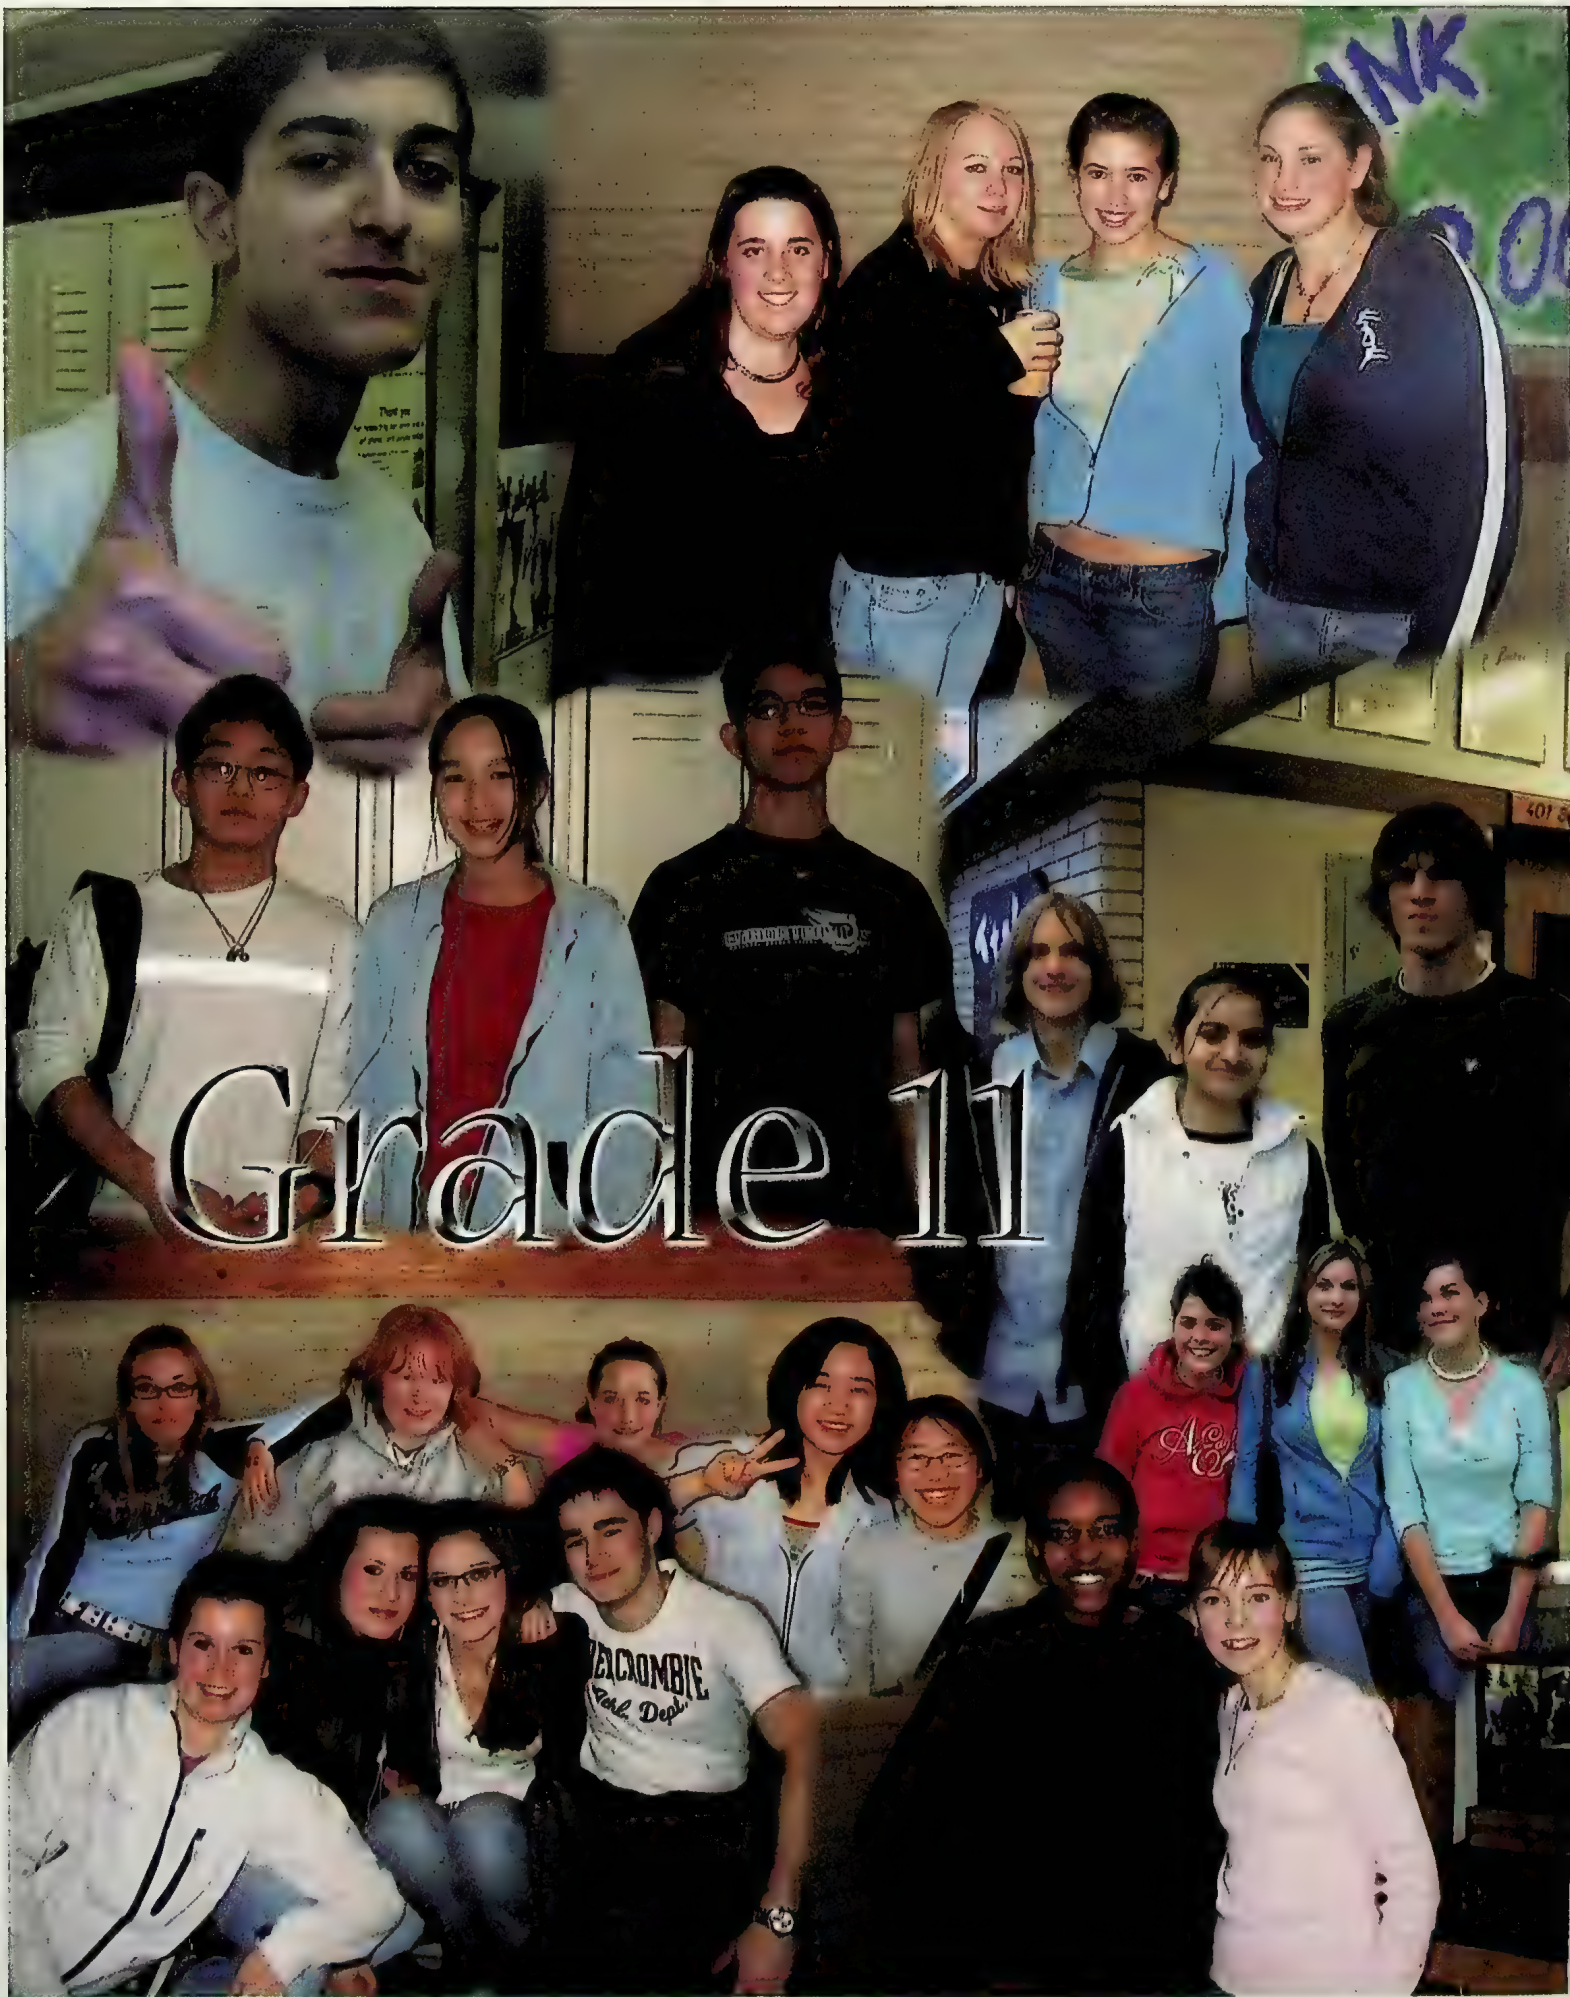

Ankita Gupta and Priyanka Kedariseti

The purpose of the project was to determine how the protein tubulin may be used to fight cancer. To accomplish this, we researched tubulin's structure and function and found that there are three major types of tubulin. We examined techniques which assisted in finding locations of binding pockets on tubulin isotopes; finding these sites may contribute to research studies and help both suppress the initiation of and fight cancer cells.

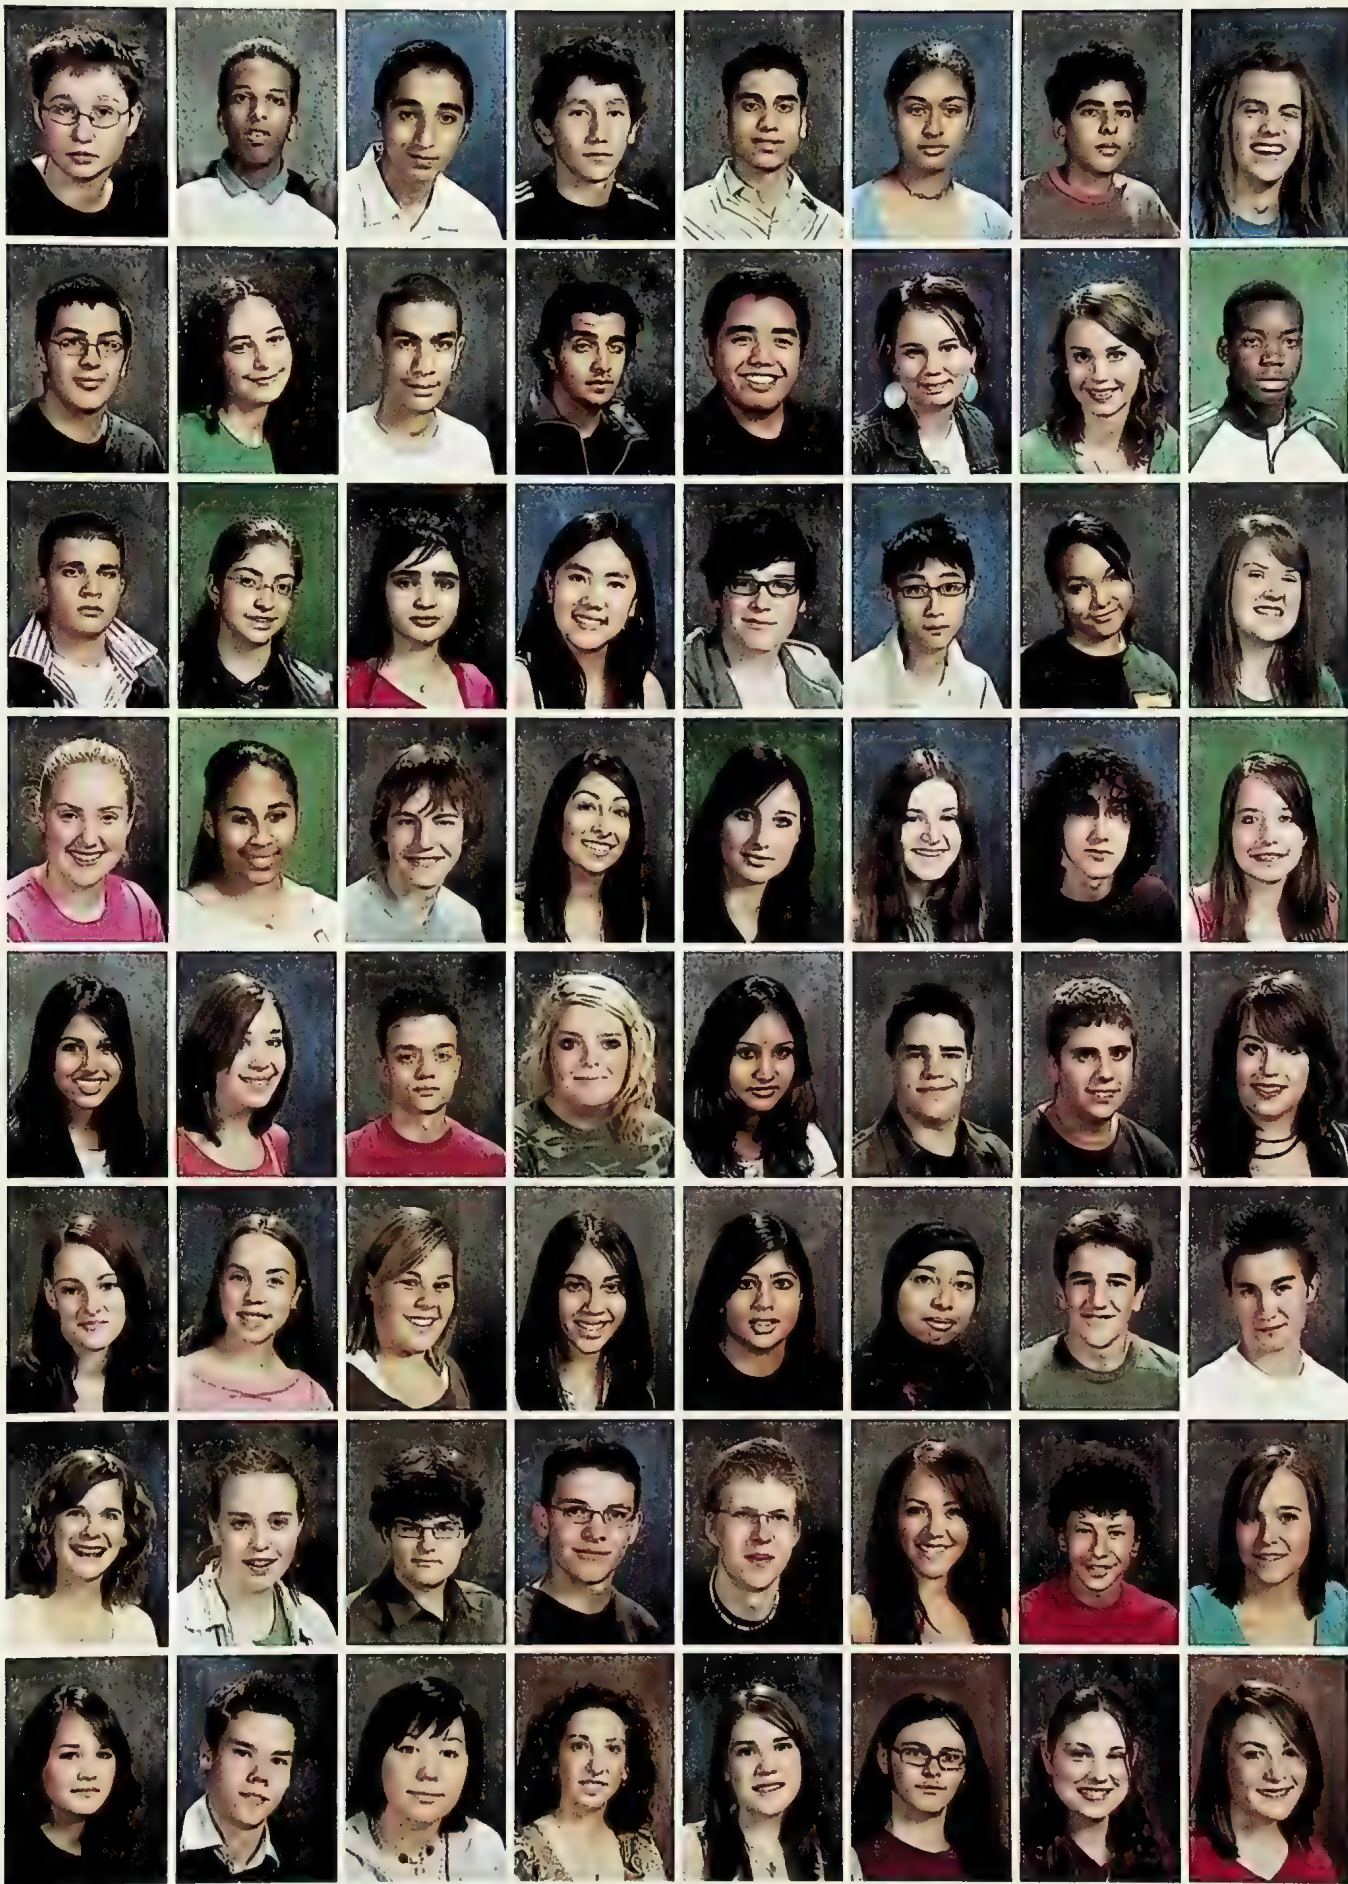

Sahil Gupta, Saurash Reddy & Arjun Suresh (missing)

The group attempted to establish antibody-based diagnostics of SARS by working to detect the SARS-CoV Nucleocapsid Protein (NP) in the bloodstreams of infected individuals. We worked to transplant the NP protein into E.coli bacteria and develop a system to detect the protein in the bacteria. Hopefully, our advancements will eventually lead to situations where SARS-CoV can be detected in humans.

Curricular

CHRYSALIDS

Core Subjects

International Baccalaureate

The International Baccalaureate program at Harry Ainlay is one of the largest and most successful IB programs in Canada with over 600 pre-IB and IB students. International Baccalaureate is a program which challenges highly motivated students to develop critical thinking skills that will help prepare them for academic studies at University. Students value the dynamic classroom environment, individual instruction, challenging curriculum, dedicated teachers, and most of all, the opportunity to develop time-management, self-confidence, and leadership skills. Some of our IB students choose to earn the full IB Diploma by completing six rigorous courses, in addition to a 4000 word extended essay, completion of a Theory of Knowledge course, and at least 150 CAS (Community, Action, Service) hours in grades 11 and 12. This helps to create students that are well rounded and who can engage themselves in the world beyond the textbook.

International Languages

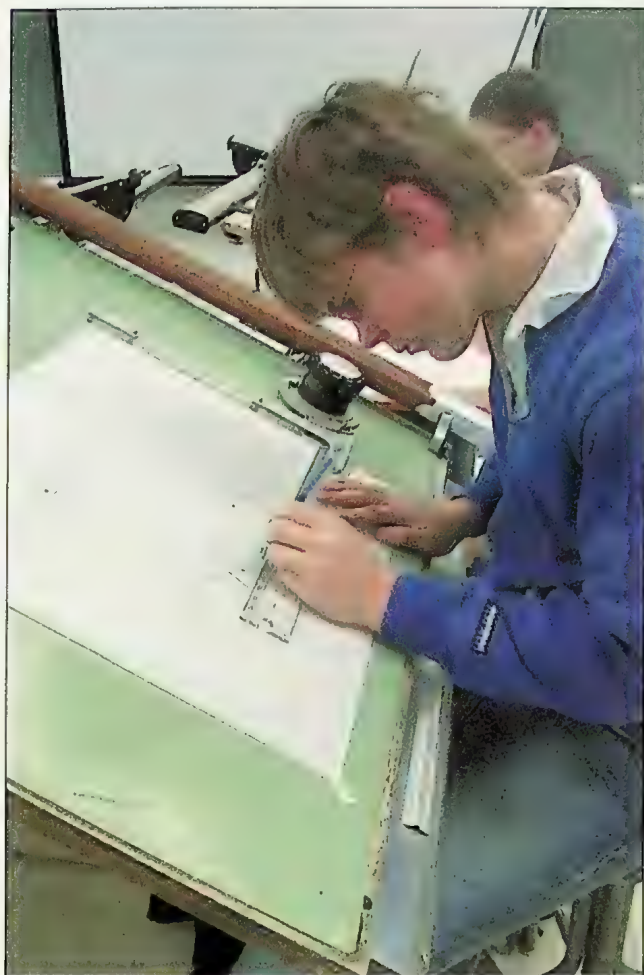

The International Languages department at Ainlay offers second language instructions in French, German, Japanese, and Spanish as well as French Language Arts. Through these instructions, students increase their intellectual capacity and learn new ways to communicate with people around the world. Students not only gain the spoken/written communication skills, but also enhance their understanding of respective peoples and their cultures. Each program provides the students with numerous opportunities to experience authentic cultures through daily instructions, field trips, festivals and exchange programs. It is fun to learn a new language!

CTS Curricular

Career and Technology Studies courses provide students with an opportunity to explore a particular career field through hands-on learning experiences. The CTS programs offered this year were: Mechanics, Communication Technology, Construction Technology, Cosmetology, Design Studies, Fashion Studies, Foods, Fabrication Metals, Desktop Publishing, Web Design, and Computer Programming. CTS courses combine the theory learned in academic classes with the practical application of that theory to create projects. Through instruction, practice and experience students acquire the skill to create projects such as metal sculptures, belt buckles, furniture, dresses, cakes, T-shirts, and engine overhauls to name a few. Upon finishing a CTS course, students are able to tangibly see how their acquired knowledge has taken shape in their finished project. Some students pursue one CTS strand throughout high school as their career option whereas others sample various courses for fun and career exploration. In CTS courses it's always time to roll up your sleeves, and get working!

Art Program

At Harry Ainlay, students studying Art are encouraged to find their strengths and to explore subject matter that is personally relevant to their daily lives. All students study drawing, painting, sculpture and collage, and are encouraged to experiment with new and unusual materials in the artmaking process.

"Art is a lie which makes us realize the truth" Pablo Picasso

Drama

Drama at Ainlay is a dynamic course that offers students who love to act, sing, dance or direct the opportunity to express and explore their creativity. The musical "The Pajama Game", was a hit with seven sold out houses and standing ovations every night! The one-act festival featuring the work of novice drama 30 directors was another incredible event!

Music Program

The 2005-2006 school year was packed with exciting performances for the Ainlay Music Department. The year started with a visit from the youth orchestra from Wuppertal, Germany in October. The Symphonic Band had been in Germany and Italy in July for a fabulous tour and it was our turn to reciprocate the hospitality. Also in October, nine students were chosen from the Ainlay Music Program as members of the Provincial High School Honor Band. The band rehearsed for four days and performed in the final concert at the Alberta Band Conference in Red Deer.

In mid-November 175 students headed out to Camp-Nakamun for the annual Music Retreat. Many new friendships were made and a great deal was accomplished musically to prepare for the first concerts of the year in the last week of November.

In February, the jazz groups provided the music for our 25th annual Big Band Bash. The Silver Anniversary edition of this annual dinner and dance was once again sold out and everyone had a great evening.

The Jazz Bands, Concert Band and Symphonic Band all participated in the Alberta International Band Festival and received very high ratings. Adjudicators were very impressed with the bands, and students gained a lot of valuable information at the clinic sessions.

In addition to our annual school concerts held in March, many of our music students were involved in the annual EPS Night of Music on March 8 in the rejuvenated Jubilee Auditorium. Ainlay musicians were a big part of both the Senior High Honor Choir and the Senior High Honor Band. The next night, Open House provided an excellent opportunity to showcase the Jazz groups that we have at Ainlay.

In mid-April this year, all the Ainlay music ensembles participated in a six-day tour to the Heritage Music Festival in Anaheim, California. The groups had outstanding performances and represented the city, province and country extremely well. The final concerts of the year were the Winds at the Winspear concert in the fabulous Winspear Center for Music, and the jazz coffee house in the school cafeteria. It was a great year!

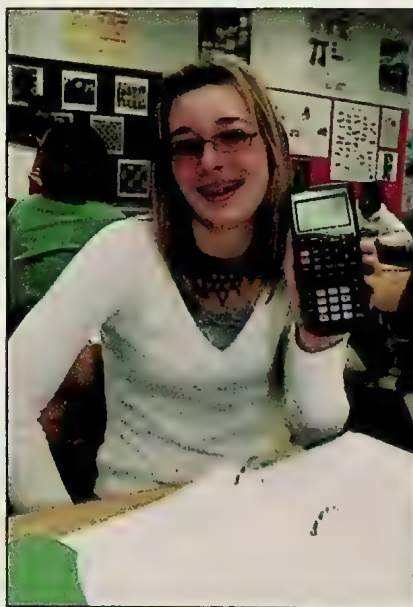

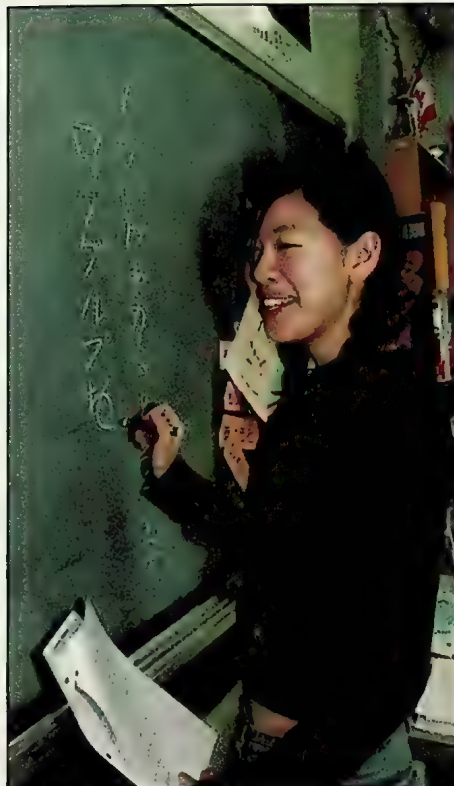

Many thanks to all of the students for their passion for music and commitment to the music program at Ainlay. Also, a big thank-you to the parents who volunteered in so many capacities throughout the year.

Curricular Candids

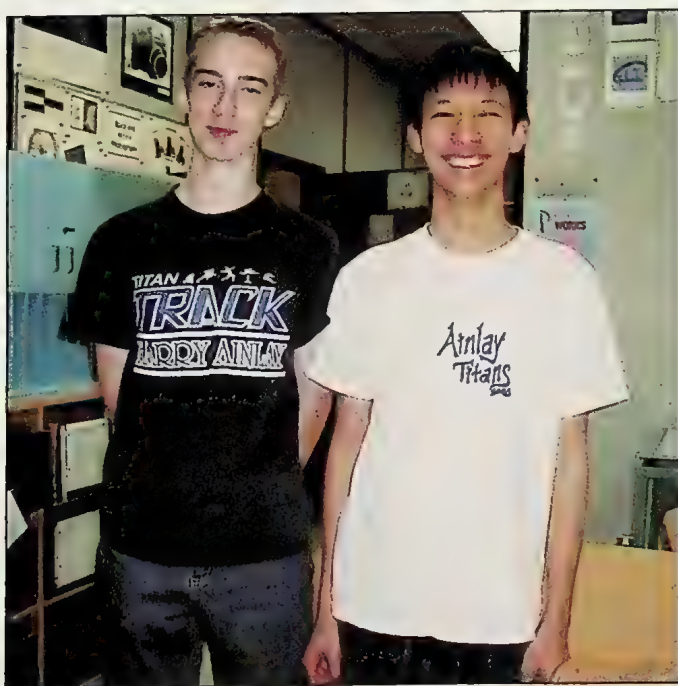

Titan Pride

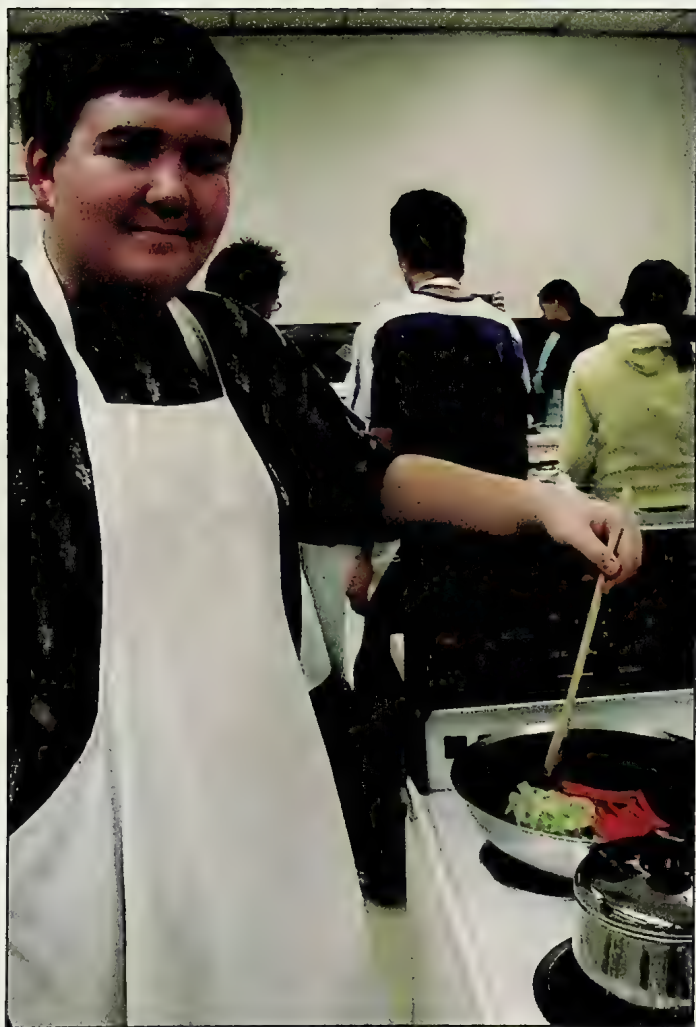

You can hear it in the cheering of Titan fans at any sporting event. Titan pride is evident as you walk through the halls of Ainlay decorated for one of our many celebrations. The academic, fine art and athletic achievement of Titans is a source of elation for all of us. The power of Titan pride has touched the surrounding community by raising thousands of dollars for such events as Hurricane Katrina, Pakistan Earthquake relief, and the Christmas Turkey drive to name a few. Titan Pride binds each and every one of us together. No matter where we go in life, we will always be Titans.

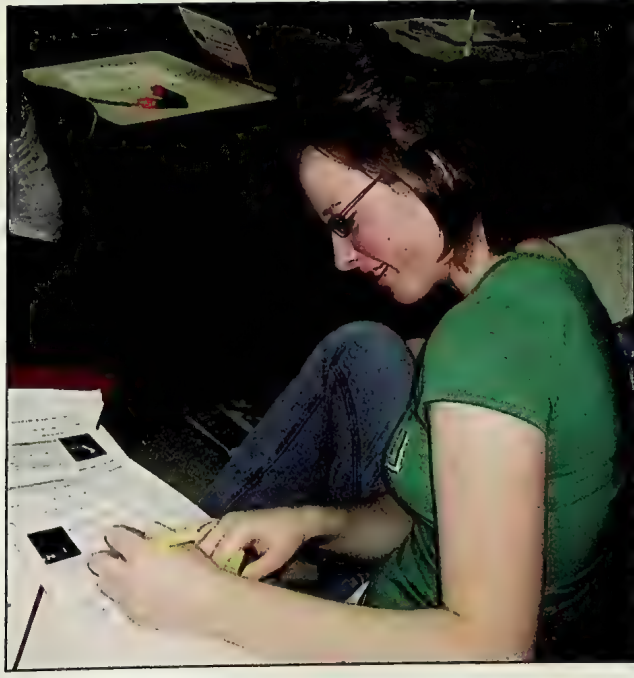

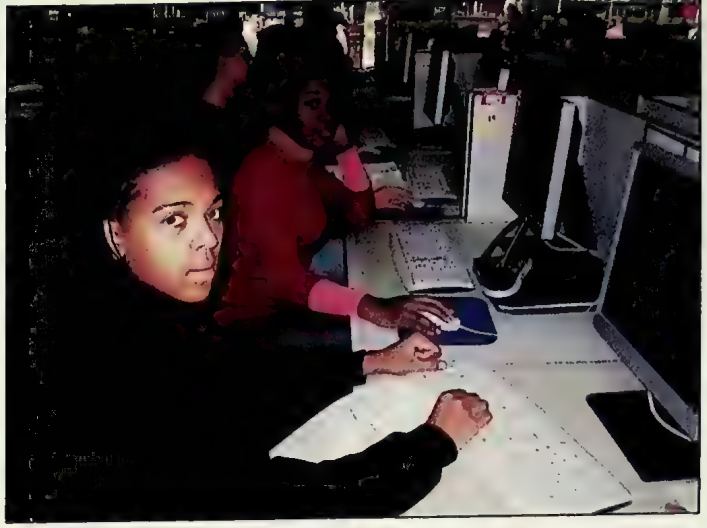

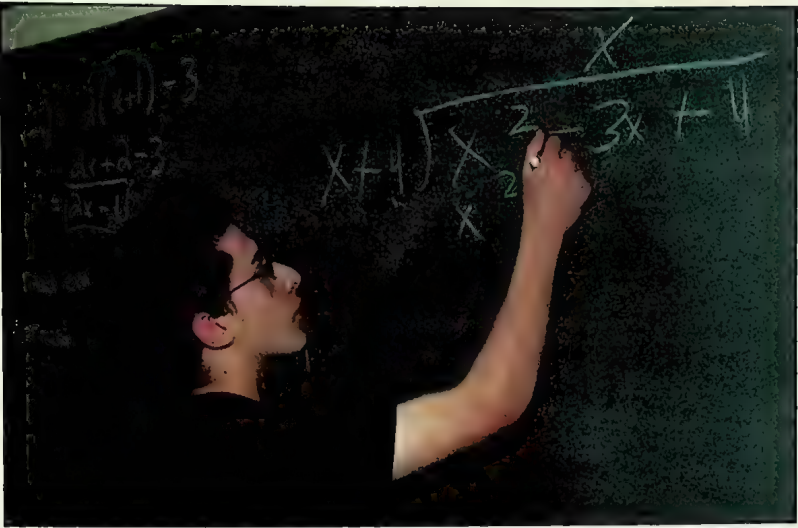

In Omnibus Excelsior

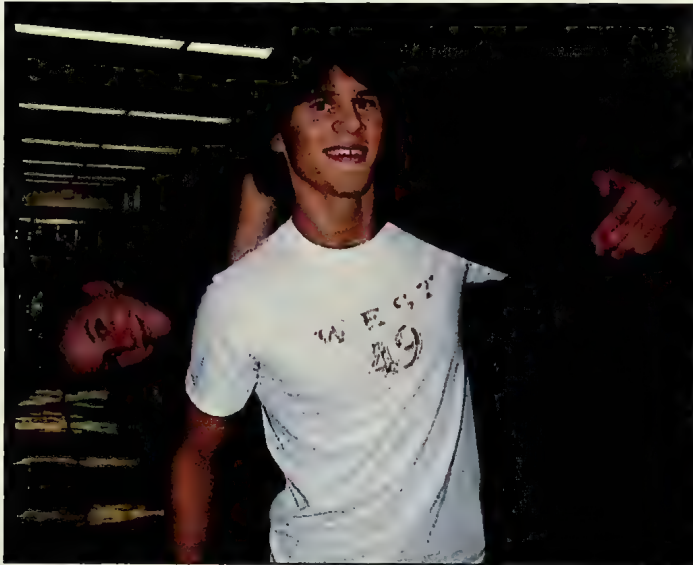

In All Things Excellence ... the motto of Harry Ainlay High School. Titans have proven themselves worthy of this motto. Ainlay students through their goals and stick-to-itiveness excel in all areas: sports, arts, drama, music, leadership and academics. Numerous trophies and scholarships are won by Titans through their personal dedication and perseverance. Titans are constantly setting new standards of excellence for others to follow.

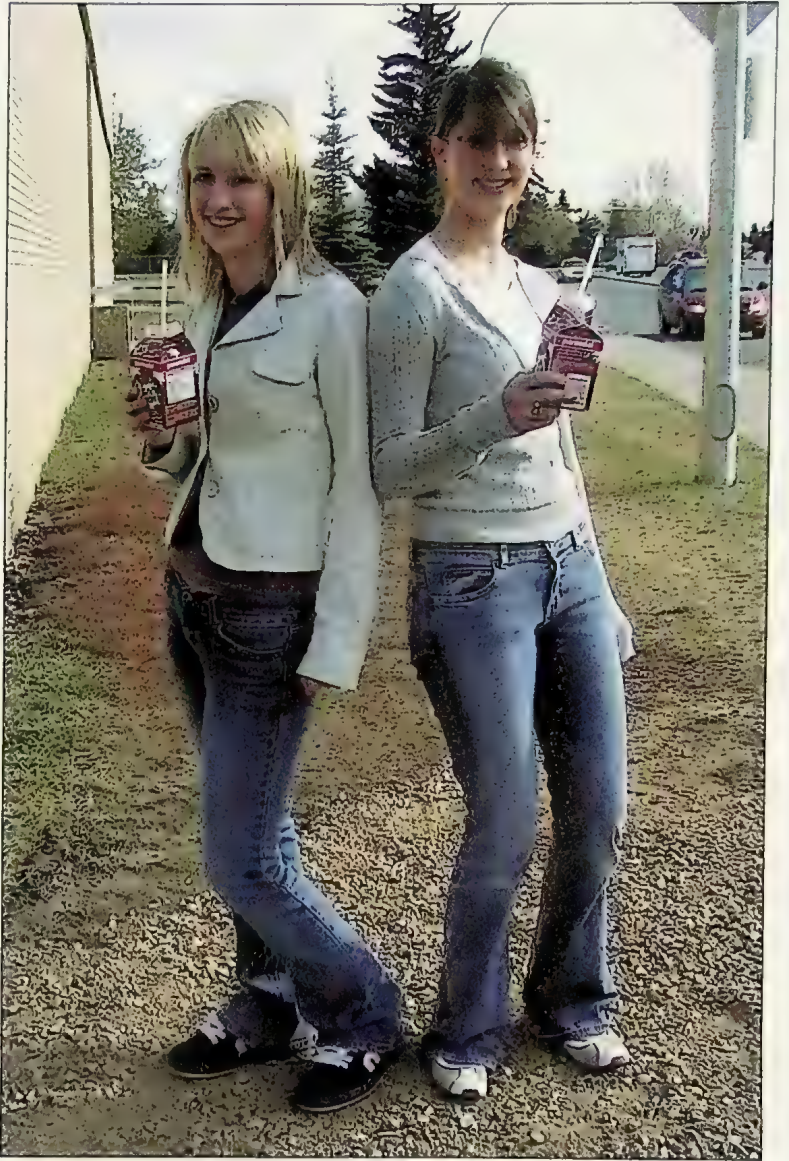

Student Life

Titans take their work very seriously, striving to be the best they can be, but, that's only one side of a student's life at Ainlay. Students fill the school with a magical spontaneity they infuse into their daily routines. Walking through the halls the creative spirit is visible as students decorate a friend's locker, sing together, break dance and bend over laughing at a funny thought. The events, activities, clubs and socializing are what makes being a student so much fun. Our Titan zest for life is an essential ingredient in what makes Ainlay a cherished and heartfelt memory.

Senior Football

The Harry Ainlay Senior Football Team had an outstanding season this year. They finished with an undefeated record in the regular season which led them to first place in their pool. One of the highlights during the regular season was defeating arch-rival Strathcona High School by a score of 38-8. This was Strathcona's first league loss in 5 years. During this run of consecutive wins, the team ended up ranked as high as 5th in the province as a tier 1 school. During the playoffs, the team rolled through the quarterfinals and semifinals to compete in the Edmonton Public City finals. They played an excellent game but unfortunately ended up short in one of the most exciting high school finals ever played. Ainlay lost a heart-breaking game in overtime to end their 8 game winning streak. Although the year ended without the team's desired result, it was a season that all Ainlay students can be proud of. This was a football team that won with skill, hard work and class. Congratulations to all involved.

Junior Football

The Harry Ainlay Junior Titan Football Team once again had a successful season, with the team making it to the playoffs. This year the players had to work hard to overcome a dismal start to the season not scoring a single point in their first two games. They still lost the next two games but were able to put up some impressive points and scoring more points against the #1 ranked Ross Sheppard T Birds. The Titans were able to win their last two regular season games forcing a 3 way tie and guaranteeing them a playoff spot and another chance to beat Ross Sheppard. The semi-final game was a close affair and the Titans played one of their best games of the year making it an exciting game to watch. Even though they lost it was by far the best game of the playoffs, and a great way to finish their season. Congratulations to all team members for their dynamic performances and their enthusiastic team spirit. All the best for next year's season.

The team finished second in several other tournaments. "Most Outstanding Contributor" Mark Olsen and "Most Improved Player" Nick Bober, along with the supporting cast of eight other Titans made this season a huge success for rookie coach Jordan Abney from University of Alberta. Unfortunately, as time drew on, Junior Men's volleyball came to a close, but not without creating lasting memories and new friendships. Each player came out of the season improved and refined.

Early success was achieved with a gold medal at the Junior Titans inaugural trip to Prince George. During the trip, players began to grow together as a team. At the Salisbury Tournament, the team captured the bronze medal and, at TVT, we placed fifth. With two consecutive 3-0 quarter and semi-final victories against M.E. Lazerte and Jasper Place, the team advanced to city finals. The boys were determined to bring home gold. After a hard fought battle and the most intense game of the year, the team fell short in a fifth set, a 19-17 loss. This loss will not be forgotten and will be used as a building block towards success in future encounters.

This year, twelve individuals came together to form a memorable Junior Women's Titan Volleyball team. Our first tournament was in Prince George; it was an interesting and long ten hour bus ride. We placed third in that tournament. At every tournament, we would always sing between games; it was almost a routine, walking to the other gym singing 'Destiny's Child'. There were so many fond memories.

We won every game in the regular season but lost a close game in the city finals against Spruce Grove. In this season we learned many different and new skills and set personal and team goals which we always tried our best to complete. We strived to be the best we could be, and proved that throughout the season. A major part of being successful had to do with our working as a team; if someone struggled, everyone would try to encourage them. As our coaches say "We are as strong as our weakest link." We will never forget all the fun, sweat, tears, joy and love for the game that we all shared throughout the season. By Captains: Ellen Duncan and Ashley Kinsella

The curling team had a several pre-tournament competitions at the Derrick Curling Club. Our teams had many first time curlers who performed very well. The boy's team had a successful season, winning two and losing two games in the cities. We are looking forward to an exciting season next year.

TVT-Monumental2005

TVT Monumental was an incredible event. Opening Ceremonies packed the gym with students, excitement running high for the 26th annual event. The Seven Wonders of the World were featured this year with TVT 2005 being the eighth. The three-weekend tournament was filled with competition, athleticism, and incredible student involvement. This year's competition included both a Senior Men's and Woman's team from Norway. The Salisbury Sabres Sr. Men, and the College Jean Suave Olympiens Sr. Women took home the gold medals for the senior tournament. Harry Ainlay Sr. Women received 3rd place, Sr. Men came in 6th, Jr. Women placed 4th, and Jr. Men won the consolation final for 5th place. Congratulations to all teams! This tournament would not have been made possible without all the time and dedication put forth by the organizers. Thank you to all the teachers and students who were involved making this a successful tournament!

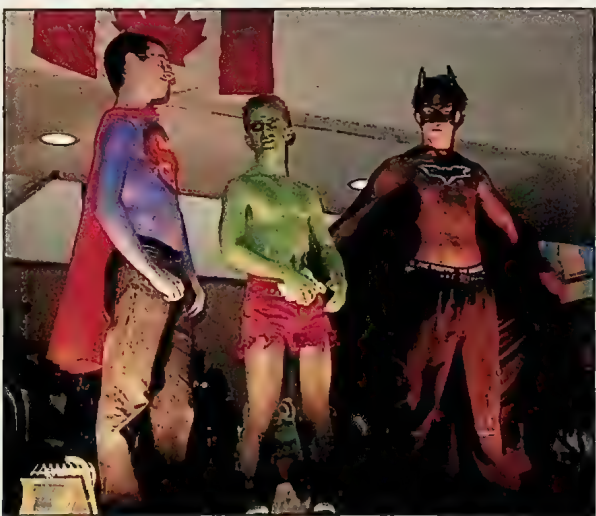

HALLOWEEN

Halloween cast a wicked spell on Ainlay, transforming Titans into a frightening menagerie of superheroes, angels, devils, pirates and an oversized iPod that wandered the halls in search of candy. The alter-egos of Titans boldly performed on stage during the fabulous costume contest. The madness continued throughout the day until the ghosts and goblins boarded buses and melted into the misty evening. Very Sccccaarry!

TOUCH OF CLASS

On December 8, 2005 Titans experienced "A Starry Summer's Night." Dressed elegantly in their evening gowns, tuxes, high heels and ties, they enjoyed various hors d'oeuvres prepared by the innovative and ingenious foods classes. Our outstanding and inspiring Jazz Band and choir entertained the classy students and staff throughout the lunch hour. Beautiful memories were created as Titans celebrated a "Touch of Class" to close out 2005.

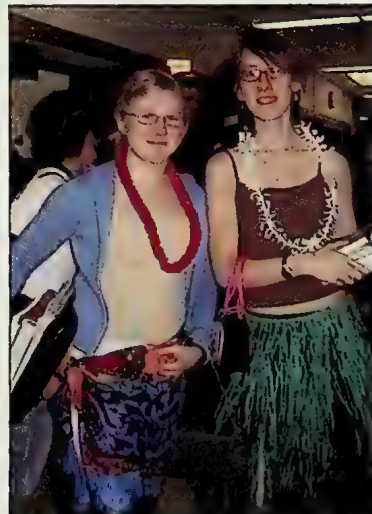

Aloha Ainlay

Aloha Ainlay brought the sun to school right in the middle of winter. Tropically dressed students, Hawaiian music, and a Tiki-Bar serving tropical drinks characterized this Hawaiian themed day. Hawaiian leis were handed out to students at main entrances of the school in the morning while they were coming in. The Tiki-Bar, stationed in the rotunda, was decorated with vines, lights and palm trees around it. Two favorites, Pina Colada and Strawberry Daiquiri, were brought back to be served at lunch, while the new Margarita was introduced for the first time. We hope you enjoyed this year's Aloha Ainlay!

Tri-Prov 2006

Welcome to the 32nd edition of Tri-Prov. The Junior Women won gold against Ross Sheppard. The Junior Men made it to the finals but were eventually defeated by Cardston. It was all systems go for the Senior Tournament. The opening ceremonies were fantastic and encouraged everyone to hit the tournament with their best shot. The finals were intense with the Ainlay Senior Women unable to stop the gold medal winning Scarlett offence. The night finished with the Tri-Prov senior men's final – Ainlay vs. Ross Sheppard. The Ainlay team took home the silver. Congratulations to everyone involved in the tournament and special thanks to the executive and staff who helped make it so exceptional.

BRONZE IN CITY CHAMPIONSHIPS

This year, the Sr. Women's team had a resilient and determined attitude. The team learned from their mistakes and turned that knowledge into future wins. Throughout the season, they played in numerous tournaments and were involved in some very close matches. The team earned four silver medals out of six tournaments, including silver at Tri-Prov. They placed third in the city championship. The team was a diverse group of girls who all contributed their own special personalities and talents to the team's success in a way that stats cannot show. The team members played with a gold medal attitude throughout the season.

PROVINCIAL CHAMPIONS

The Sr. Men's basketball team had the opportunity to play in four of the top tournaments in Western Canada this year. These tournaments included: The Sugar Bowl(Raymond), BRIT(Saskatoon), Tri-Prov(Edmonton), and LIT(R Regina). The team was able to medal at Tri-Prov, placing second. The experience gained at the tournaments, along with a deep, athletic, and committed team put them in a good position heading into the Provincial Championship run. The team only dropped one game in the last ten of the season. Unfortunately it was the City Championship game but the team rebounded and won the BIGGER title of Provincial Champions.

With the average score difference against opposing teams over 30 points this season, the Titans completed their undefeated league season by winning the Edmonton Public League Championship. In addition, they captured gold at the Junior Tri-Prov tournament this year. From day one, the team committed to working together and, by the end of the season, they were a formidable team for all of their opponents. Accompanying our Senior Men to Regina allowed the girls to compete against senior women's teams where they defeated a strong Regina team. Playing the top junior teams in western Canada, the Titans proved competitive with all the strongest Canadian programs. Expectations are high for the future of our basketball program with many of these players moving on to compete at the senior level next season.

Wrestling

The Harry Ainlay wrestling team, composed of both boys and girls, was extremely successful this year. Although some of the wrestlers had little wrestling experience, their hard work, their coaches' training, and the team's dedication helped the team raise its stature among Edmonton's high school wrestling teams. Sending wrestlers to the University of Alberta High School Invitational, the City Championships, as well as the Provincial Championships, the wrestling team brought home not only medals around their necks, but the respect of other wrestlers as they demonstrated Titan spirit and sportsmanship. Training three times a week on the mats, and countless hours weightlifting, all the wrestlers showed tremendous Titan dedication and truly represented our school well in this sport.

Culture Fest

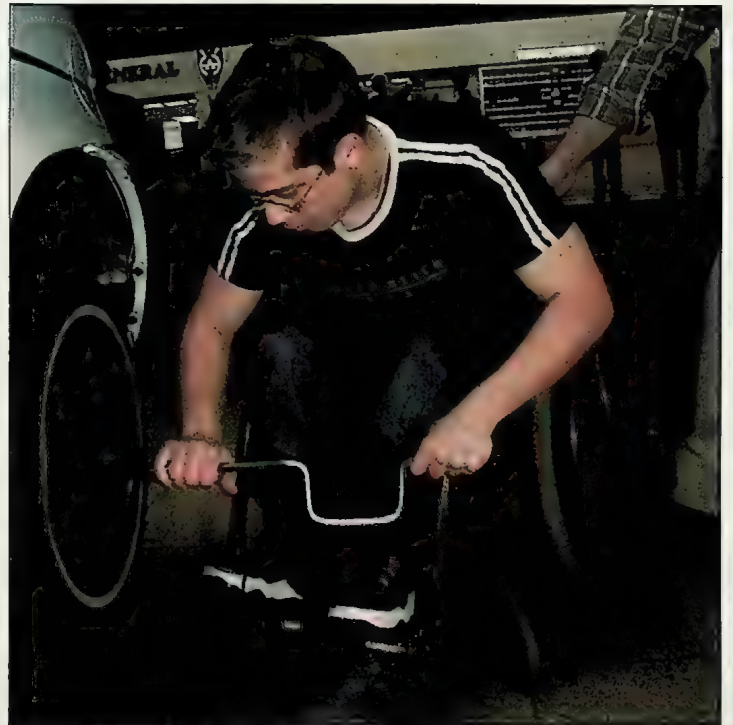

As the biggest high school in western Canada, Harry Ainlay has a lot of accomplishments to its name. Each year, Ainlay has a week-long celebration of cultural diversity, to celebrate the backgrounds of the many individuals that make Harry Ainlay so renowned. With cultural dishes, ethnic dances and performances, a fashion show, and a dress-up day, Culture Fest covers all the bases. Starting in 1997, it was initially a one-day event that grew into five days of individuality. Thank you to all of the executives, volunteers, and sponsors for all of their time, effort and support to this event.

CTS Week

During the week of March 6th to 10th, Ainlay celebrated CTS week. The Career and Technology Studies (CTS) department at Ainlay is one of the largest in the city offering ten different areas of study. Early in the week the foods program hosted an event where students decorated and then devoured cookies. On Wednesday the Communication Technology program presented a slide show that included all the events, sports and happenings around the school from September to March. Design Studies, Metal Fabrication, Fashion Studies and Cosmetology displayed an assortment of student projects. On Thursday, the automotives department sponsored the exciting pit crew tire change challenge. Crews of students raced against time to be the first crew to remove, rotate and bolt tires back onto the car. On Friday, the always exciting "Nail Driving" contest was held. In waves of five, students, rapidly drove nails into 4x4's in a contest of skill, ability and brute strength to beat the clock. It was a fun-filled week.

IB New York Trip

During this year's IB spring break trip, 17 students, Ms. Fischer and Mr. Clink visited many famous locations around Manhattan. They were there to experience the sights, sounds, culture, art, and theatre that can only be found in the Big Apple. The group visited the Empire State Building, some laughed at the Improv, and some grooved to great Jazz. We all saw The Lion King and several other Broadway blockbusters as well as the bright lights on Times Square. Some of us even took in a great game of college basketball. We couldn't help but give a standing ovation for 'Fidelio' at the Metropolitan Opera. We traveled the city by Double Decker Bus, subway, foot, and even circumnavigated the island by boat to get a better perspective while also catching a close look at the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island. Highlights of the trip included the UN, Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Modern Art, visiting 'Ground Zero' and the memorial exhibit at St. Paul's Cathedral, Canal Street in Chinatown, NYU, the Strand, the South Street Seaport, Greenwich Village, and Little Italy. It was an experience of a lifetime. Everyone had a wonderful time and many lasting friendships were formed.

Japan Trip

This year, 21 students participated in an exciting experience in Japan with Mr. Ito and Mr. Smith. In Tokyo, we cruised a river, toured an anime museum, and met our home-stay families. For three days we learned what it meant to live Japanese (and were shown a great time by our families in the process!). From Tokyo, we went to Hiroshima and visited historic Miyajima Island, with its temple and world-famous floating Torii (gate). Back in Hiroshima, we explored the Atomic Bomb Museum and Peace Park Memorial to gain an understanding of the effects the first atomic bomb had on Hiroshima and its people. The trip made a brief stop in Kyoto to meet and interact with a group of high school students. Finally, we went to Osaka, and met our second home-stay families in order to improve our Japanese. In the end, we were able to experience the wonder, discomfort, and joy of a wholly other culture. Sincere thanks to Mrs. Ito-Fedreau for her work in arranging this opportunity.

Gala Francais

Le Gala Français presents a unique opportunity for students in our district from grades one to 12, beginner to proficient, to come together to share what they are learning and observe the extent of English/French bilingualism in our district. On Thursday, April 20, 2006, student presentations in French, both competitive and non-competitive, featured students competing individually or in groups. All participants received certificates and in the adjudicated categories, students placing first, second and third received cash prizes of $25, $15 and $10. The Gala was attended by approximately 1,500 people including 600 student participants from 20 schools, their parents and guests, 75 judges from the francophone and anglophone business and arts communities, government representatives and numerous Gala volunteers.

Battle of the Bands

The Annual Battle of the Bands competition at Harry Ainlay is a chance for the talented up-and-comers of our school to show off their musical prowess. Nine bands participated, each performing a unique show that impressed and entertained the audience. The bands included Just for Now, Frish, Apostrophe, Violet Archer, Shots, Kinsey Six, Conundrum, All Night Up, and Beer Drunk Politics. The judging, done by the Axe Music Crew, determined the very deserving Violet Archer as the winner. The band, consisting of Evan Johnston, Zach Eaton, Adrian Chan, and Nick Eaton, won a $100 prize. Congratulations to everyone who performed, and the best of luck to next year's musicians.

Blood Donor

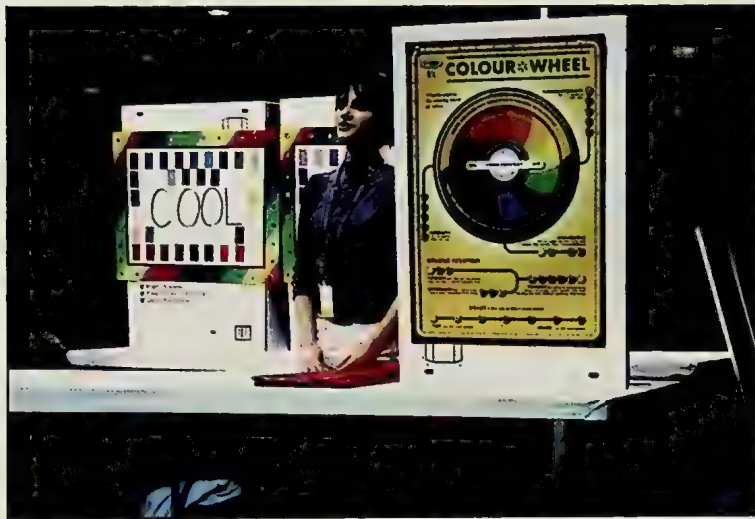

The 2005/2006 school year brought a different kind of Blood Donor Clinic to the Titans. Due to scheduling conflicts, the Clinic could not be held at the school, so determined Canadian Blood Services Youth Ambassadors (and Grade 12 Harry Ainlay High School students) Daniel Lee and Andrew Chan spearheaded the Mobile Blood Donor Clinic. The Lifebus picked students up at the school and transported them to the Canadian Blood Services building at the University. The clinic ran May 23, 24, 30, and 31 and over 70 Harry Ainlay students (and a few teachers) donated blood. That's many lives saved! Statistics show that a relatively high percentage of young first time donors continue to give the gift of life – we are proud of our Titan donors!

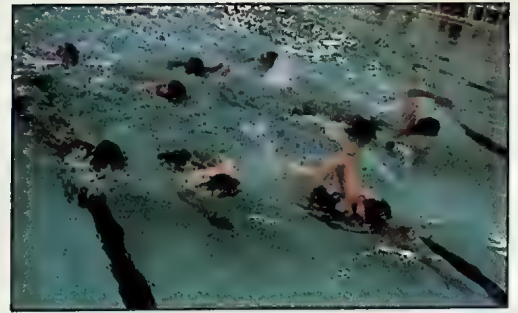

Skills Canada

Skills Canada is a competition held at provincial, national and international levels in trade related occupations. This year's competition held at Northlands Agricom saw 25 Ainlay students competing in the following trade areas: Baking, Culinary Arts, Cabinetmaking, TV & Video Production, Computer Assisted Drafting, Welding, Hairstyling, Fashion Design and Job Skill Demonstration. The students rose to the challenge, competing in events that lasted up to 14 hours. These competitions gave students an opportunity to experience the competitive nature of the work world. Tyler Butler won bronze in the Computer Assisted Drafting event. Natalie Molcak won silver in the Baking competition. This year's competitors also included Christine Park, Jessica Van Nispen, Jeannine Guerette, Anna Kravchinsky, Krysten McQueen, Mack Cooper, Katie Robinson, Kristine Nicholls, Lauren Read, Heather Whyte, Carolin Roemer, Evan Goodacre, John Garvey, Katie Dooley, Ashelyn Fung, Nathan Moore, Megan McGill, Samantha Kupchenko, Daniel Vakasi, David Lavoie and InYoung Kang. SUNIA

SUNIA or the Seminar on the United Nations and International Affairs, is an annual student conference held at the Goldeye Centre, a scenic lakeside facility near Nordegg, Alberta. For those among us whom international politics is a passion, SUNIA provides a great opportunity to bond with other likeminded people in Alberta's great outdoors. Not simply a five-day lecture, the program involves a simulated meeting of the UN, as well as small seminars and lots of heated discussions! With sessions being led by representatives from the UN, the Canadian Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, and the Canadian Department of National Defense, SUNIA is sure to be as exciting as always for those attending in 2006.

Dodgeball

1st Annual Harry Ainlay Dodgeball Tournament

This year the students and staff of Ainlay got their first taste of this exhilarating game as we held the 1st Annual Harry Ainlay Dodgeball Tournament. From December 1st – 19th hundreds of students and staff packed the gym to capacity to get a glimpse of the Dodgeball action. In this sport one attempts to hurl a ball as fast as one can at an opponent, who tries to avoid being hit. A total of 26 teams competed in student and teacher pools. In both pools we saw exciting Dodgeball action as underdogs came out on top and unbelievable comebacks were mounted. Eventually only one student and one staff team advanced to become the Dodgeball champions. On the student side the champions were the Teen Titans: Kyle Buchanan, Jian Chang, Allen Feng, Derek Gee, Alex Gordichuk, Keiko McPherson, Erin Walsh and Jodie Worobec while the champions on the staff side were Word: Ms. Ellison, Mr. Hoyt, Mr. Jenkins, Mr. Ligouri, Mr. Luchkow, Ms. Rosentretter and Ms. Surkan.

Graduation Committee

Throughout this year, the Graduation committee has invested an incredible amount of time and effort into organizing various Graduation events. The overwhelming successes of Banquet, Commencement, and the Fashion Show proved that every moment was worth it. Thank you to the 2006 Graduation Committee, the Staff Advisors, and also every graduand this year. We have made this year a memorable adventure – one that none of us will ever forget – remember the “Timeless Moments”. Congratulations and good luck everyone!

Grad President's Speech

A wise man once asked, “What constantly moves, always changes, yet is still the same?” Imploring an answer but not receiving one he replied, simply, “Time”. It has taken thousands of steps, hundreds of sleepless nights, and many joyous celebrations of our youth to reach this day, this single moment in time: our Graduation. The ‘Timeless Moments’ making up our high school experience are the culmination of this evening on which we take our first steps towards the greatness we are all capable of. It is this moment which is so important, not for the simple fact that we commence a new chapter of our lives, but for the numerous memories which we will continue to associate with these past three years for years to come. We leave our past at Harry Ainlay High School with heavy hearts, because of the friends and memories we leave behind; but we look forward to our future with shining faces to the relationships and special bonds we will form. We have taken uncountable steps down these halls that have led us to our classes- from the first apprehensive step in September of Grade 10 to our final confident steps as Graduands in Grade 12. These steps have followed us to old friends, led us to new ones, and kept us moving at a fantastic pace. We learned much by venturing into new territory everyday, whether it was conquering logarithmic functions, writing the perfect essay, or simply finding the best colour for a painting. We do, however, owe a great deal to those around us.

The support we have received from those closest to us not only gave us strength but probably helped us to keep our sanity during tough times (such as final exams)! I believe it was John Donne who said, “No man is an island entirely unto himself”. Truly, our parents, teachers, friends, and loved ones were the rocks on which we were able to find stability. They let us vent to them when we were stressed, calmed us down when we were pressured, and shared in our collective successes. The joy we felt was compounded for them because not only were the goals we achieved our successes, but they were the successes of those who gave us the strength to keep going.

As we move out into the world, therefore, we must remember to always do good. Not to do well, but to do good. We can achieve this by trying to start a charity or by simply giving a friendly smile to those around us. We can never know the profound effect our actions can have. The generosity of the human spirit, which is alive in us all, is that one intangible that makes the clock stop and time standstill. It is imperative for us to return those gifts of strength, comfort, support and kindness that are given to us. It is imperative we attempt to have the effect on others, that the people closest to us, have had on us.

Now we move forward to the double-edged sword of time, which makes us sad and happy to depart all at once. We must remember to keep close those experiences which made us show our mettle. As we walk on and look at the steps left behind, that infernal milk commercial comes to mind... “Never stop growing”. Never stop learning...and never stop loving life.

Thank You.

Jainesh Bali

Fashion Show & Gala

Our night in London was a huge success! Harry Ainlay's 12th annual Fashion Show and Gala kicked off with amazing silent auction items, great booths and an eager crowd of over 200 people. Forty models dazzled us with their funny routines as they modeled clothing from Southgate and Derk's Formals. During the intermission, guests enjoyed food from Earl's and an assortment of decadent desserts from our very own Foods 30 class. We were lucky enough to have jewelry stores, flower shops, hair and make-up salons and many more businesses from around the city setting up booths so that we could see the latest new products out there! With all proceeds going towards grad, we were extremely pleased when we raised a surprising $4000. Thank you to all the volunteers who helped make this much anticipated event a huge success!

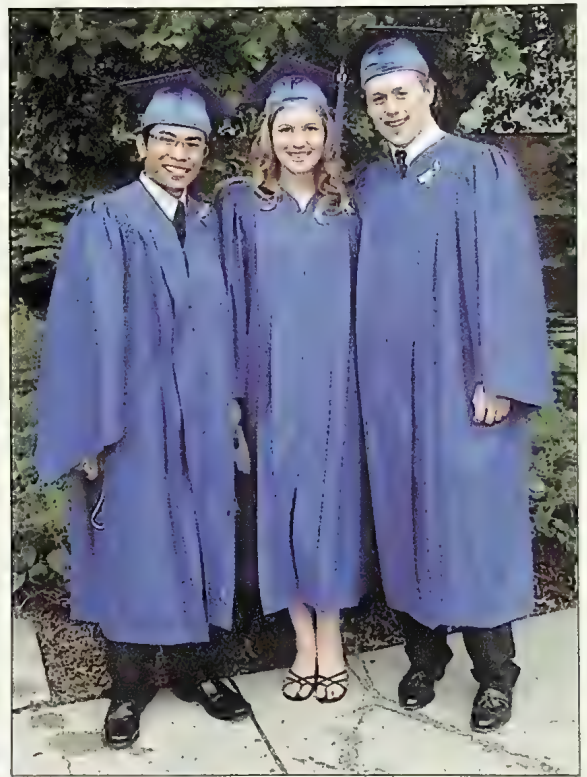

Graduation Commencement

Commencement and Awards Night was held at the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium on May 25th and was a thrilling evening that highlighted the many accomplishments of this year's graduating class. Graduands, guests, and staff gathered to honour the achievements and skills of all students and to celebrate our "Timeless Moments." A special thank you goes out to our performers who displayed a breathtaking array of talent, and to our guest speaker, Mr. Agrell-Smith, and our Valedictorian, Charles Lim. Their speeches were inspirational and will always be remembered. Thank you to everyone for making this a memorable night and we wish you all the best in the future.

-Sheyzeen Dhala and Rachel Duncan - Commencement Co-Chairs

Graduation Banquet

Following the formality of Commencement, the Banquet is the time to kick up our heels, and celebrate our accomplishments. Just over two thousand people, consisting of Ainlay graduands, along with their families, guests, and teachers filled hall B and C of the Shaw Conference Centre the night of May 27th, 2006. Josephine Wong proceeded to play "Only Time" by Enya, as all took in the atmosphere. Following the entrance and introductions of the Head Table, consisting of our Graduation Executive, we invited Mark Olsen along with his Mother, Mrs. Olsen to present a Toast to the Parents and the reply. This was a touching reminder to all the graduands, of the role that our parents have played in our lives. The second toast of the evening was to the staff. Jordan Leung, our Students' Union President, thanked all the Harry Ainlay Staff for their dedication to the students over the past three years. Mr. Liguori responded to this toast by reminding us of the past three years spent at Ainlay, but also wishing us luck on the years to come. Before eating, Luke Crosby gave the blessing for our meal.

After dinner, Yemie Sonuga gave a jaw dropping performance, singing Michael Bublé's "Feeling Good." She received a standing "O". Next Aliya Jamal, and Terence Wong presented the 2006 legacy to the school and the community. The Graduation gift to the school is an Ainlay crest which will be integrated into the school's ongoing Courtyard Beautification Project. The gift to the community was a donation to the Youth Emergency Shelter.

After acknowledging all the Grad Staff Advisors, Ms. Baker and Mrs. Georg were thanked personally for their efforts involving the Banquet. The last performance of the evening, was that of Nova Sound, a band consisting of Braeden Wright, Rob Schuh, Forrest Shell, and Russell Mann. We all were taken back by their acoustic rendition of the Foo Fighter's "Times Like These". Before continuing with the remainder of the program, Braeden took it upon himself to announce that the Oilers had won the last game in their series, and were advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals.

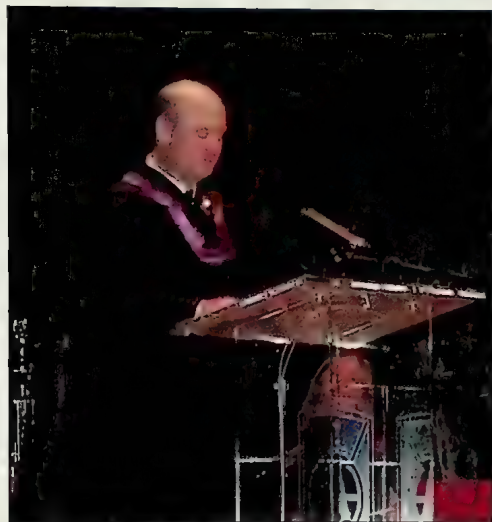

The night concluded with a dance. All Mothers and Sons, or Fathers and Daughters gathered on the dance floor, as Nat King Cole's "Unforgettable" played. As family members danced, I could here the conversations around me, parents congratulating their children, and reminiscing on the years that passed. All in all, it was a pretty magical night, and one that I hope remains Timeless in our memories.

Principal's Message

Good evening ladies and gentlemen, honoured guests, families and members of the Harry Ainlay graduating class of 2006.

It is an honour to be with you tonight as we celebrate the graduating class of 2006, and as Principal, it is my privilege to give a parting word to the members of our graduating class. These words are meant to greet you, for all of us here this evening feel that you have done an excellent job in completing your high school education. The words that I impart to you this evening are words I hope to be of some benefit and not only to those who are graduating but to us all. Tonight marks the beginning of the end to your high school years. For many of you, the past three years have disappeared in a blur of friendships, assignments, exams and activities. For others, this journey has not passed as quickly but this has not diminished your experiences.

As you young men and women before us tonight prepare to start a new life filled with the adventures of youth, I encourage you to set high standards of integrity for yourselves. High standards that permit no alibis or excuses. Gabriel Meurier once wrote, "He who excuses himself accuses himself." How clever he was, for it is quite often the case that when we make excuses for things that have occurred, we are admitting to our errors, and rather than facing up to the situation and making it right, we often try to cover up the wrong doing. What have we said to our parents when we have failed to return home at the time we have agreed upon as a curfew? Occasionally, there are valid reasons for being late but how often are you guilty of creatively coming up with logical excuses for your failure to make it home at the appointed time? Times of curfew or other responsibilities are family decisions and are often times based on the maturity of the individuals involved. I see many parents and students shaking their heads and smiling. These types of parent/child conflicts occur frequently as teens strive for independence and parents worry for their safety. Most of us are very much concerned about our lives and as graduands, you are probably more conscious of this tonight than anyone else here.

In completing this one phase of your life, you open the door to a new phase. One you are completely unfamiliar with and one that holds greater responsibilities for you than you have ever known. Up until now, your parents and teachers have tried their best to equip you with the necessary tools to help you succeed and make the most of your life. Older people have traveled the same road you will travel and, although the roads they traveled have been at different times and places, the same feelings, apprehensions and excitement are felt in each generation. In that respect, they are exactly the same. Believe it or not, parents and teachers can sometimes give bits of advice that will be of use to you. Further more, you must keep in mind when such advice is given that a parent's or teacher's wish is that you refrain from making the same types of mistakes that he or she has made in the past. To truly make something admirable of your life you must work hard and make no excuses. Even though at times, all of us will err, and sometimes it is not of our doing, don't place blame. Accept that an error or mistake has occurred and go about making it right, for ultimately, responsibility for the things you are entrusted with, whether under your control or not, must lie with you. Every man or woman has been given the power to lead his or her own life. What is made of that life is entirely up to the individual. Ella Wheeler Wilcox wrote a poem entitled "Our Lives" and I quote, "Our lives are songs and we set them to music at pleasure. And the song grows glad, or sweet or sad. As we choose to fashion the measure."

She had one good idea that all of us should adhere to, even though it is the bitter truth, our lives are fashioned in a manner of our choosing. As you leave your high school days behind you, begin to definitely carve your own niche in the world, even though the whittling of the woodwork began some time ago. In fact, the sculpture has been forming since the day you were born and will continue to form as you live your life. Carve yourself and your life into a masterful piece of art.

And, as you begin your new life and face the challenges that cross your path, do not think of the past, but rather meet the future with a renewed vigour and zest knowing that even though mistakes have been made in the past, there are many tomorrows in which you can set things right. Dedicate yourself to living life at its fullest, learn your limitations and always look to excel, past them.

We fully expect each of you leaving the halls of Harry Ainlay forever to make a success of your life, and to always remember to hold yourselves to the highest of standards.

Good luck and best wishes to each of you.

Mr. Liguori

Message from the Trustees

Honoured guests, parents, family, ladies and gentlemen and graduates
Good evening.
Trustee George Nicholson is away at a conference and is unable to attend tonight. He asked me to extend his best wishes to each and every one of you on this special occasion. It's an honour for me to be here on his behalf and bring greetings from the board of trustees.
Let me start by saying congratulations to each of you on completing high school!
Your three years at Harry Ainlay are, I'm sure, as precious to you as mine were to me. As your grad song suggests time slips by quickly and quietly and leaves us wondering where it has gone.
Capture in your heart the memories of this time and the friends you have made, as they will serve you well in good times and in times of difficulty. You have learned to seek excellence in all that you do,

You have learned the importance of strong character,
And you have learned the value of sharing your diversity in culture and world views.
Take these lessons with you and use them to take full advantage of every opportunity that presents itself.
Graduation is an important milestone in your life and is the culmination of many years of dedication and hard work by your family, your teachers and yourself.

Everyone who is here tonight to share this special event with you is very proud of your accomplishment.

(Pause)

Tonight you close one chapter in the book of your life and start a promising new one.

This new chapter is one where you will write the script with much less direct guidance.

You will need to review the lessons you have learned and to consult with those around you.

Time will be your best friend and your constant teacher as you learn to make decisions about your future.

Whichever step you take next, I encourage you to always look for ways to grow and achieve new things. Do your best, be the best and remember your Titan pride.

It is my hope—and the hope of the board of trustees—that your education with Edmonton Public Schools has prepared you to pursue your dreams in every way.

Congratulations on your graduation and I wish the best of luck for your future. Have a safe and fun filled celebration and good luck with your final exams. Thank you.

Valedictorian Address

Good evening fellow graduands, parents, staff and honoured guests. We have gathered here tonight to celebrate an important milestone in our lives. It has been a long journey and we have each taken our own unique path, but our paths have converged here tonight. It is a wonderful privilege and honour for us to have the opportunity to celebrate our achievements and successes with our fellow classmates. It is also a moment where we can proudly look forward to our bright futures, filled with endless possibilities. It is definitely an exciting time to look forward to what awaits us, but it is also an appropriate time to reflect upon our past.

We have been highly privileged thus far in our lives. We have many precious memories of our childhood and, more recently, of our high school years at Harry Ainlay to enjoy. This may not seem to be anything extraordinary, but we often forget about the free and prosperous society we live in. Our society, though far from perfect, is a model that many from around the world look up to. We may take our rights and freedoms for granted, but there are millions of people worldwide that struggle to attain these basic principles. When viewed from this perspective, we are definitely very fortunate to live in the society that we live in today.

With this awareness comes greater responsibility. Our education has not only allowed us to develop our academic, artistic and athletic talents, but it has also taught us the importance of service to others and of becoming responsible citizens. Thus, we must always remember to give back to the community that has already given so much to us. This process begins by expressing the character virtues that have guided our development thus far. Cherishing these core values will allow us to express ourselves in ways that will benefit those around us.

Furthermore, as Harry Ainlay students, we have an additional responsibility placed upon us. During our years as Titans, we have lived up to our school's long-standing tradition of achieving 'in all things excellence'. Now, we must carry that tradition beyond our school and into the community. You have probably heard this phrase before, and it holds true to all of us, especially at this critical moment in our lives. "With great power comes great responsibility". As graduating students, we have great power. We have a wealth of skills and knowledge and we have enormous potential. However, we also have a responsibility to ourselves and to those around us. We must harness our youthful spirit and energy, and use this power for constructive means and for service to our community.

It is our responsibility to show that Harry Ainlay graduands are not only exceptional students, but also exceptional young citizens. High school at Harry Ainlay has prepared us to meet this challenge. Remember that whether you have been a Harry Ainlay Titan for three years, one year, or one month, you have become a part of our school's tradition of excellence, and you will always carry this tradition with you in all of your future pursuits. Congratulations, fellow Titans, for being here tonight and for your successes thus far, and I offer you my best wishes for continued success in the future.

- Charles Lim

Guest Speaker - Mr. Agrell-Smith

Good evening graduands, parents, staff, friends and special guests. It is a pleasure to be back among the very best and hopefully this event will become a timeless and memorable moment for all of you. I know that you all share in this collective tribute to six hundred and ninety four (694) graduands, youthful members of the tribe, in their final collective experience as Titans.

TIMELESS MOMENTS

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven. (Ecclesiastes)

I was troubled by your theme, Timeless Moments, as I have been since my own high school graduation forty-six years ago. Each teaching year for me, when grad came along, I lived in dread of Sunday's newspaper. No, I don't intend a downer for you but a lesson of "don't drink and drive" will be loud and clear.

A timeless, beautiful and memorable moment for me at my grad was hopping on my motorcycle about 1:30 am to head out to B.C. with a friend and his bike to visit his mother. We rode all night through a full moon breaking through clouds, the silence of dark mountain forests and crystal clear cold air to only enhance the joys of freedom, fulfillment, pride and pure ecstasy of the open road. ... To cut to our return... Three of our classmates, good guys, drunk, had wrapped a car around a massive cement and stone four meter high pyramidal commemorative cairn at the junction of two highways. No skid marks. Instant death..

The timeless memories of my grad with both the joyous and the hurtful are with me for my lifetime. I'm sorry if my reality may be painful for some of you and for others causing anger or indifference but this has become a shared communal moment. I pray your grad will be joyous, a glorious timeless moment, free of grief. Timeless Moments, easy to say as we are caught up in the world of school, work, and family schedules, demands, and deadlines, of crises, tests, computer meltdowns, global distress and even final hockey games; the addictions of our cell phones, ipods, blackberries, text messaging, Game Boys and all the other tools of instant gratification; and the here and now: my hair, my hat, my dress, my friends, my parents, my grandparents, my little brother, my wheels, my man, my girl, my fear, my... and on and on to the point where it is really, really hard to know WHAT is important. The DEMANDS from EVERYTHING seem to be equal and demand attention NOW!

In our hyperkinetic world we need to slow down: From the song lyric: "Wait, Don't Go So Fast I'm missing the moments as they pass."

Let's get some perspective:

Socrates, that great teacher, through his student Plato, taught that "the unexamined life is not worth living"...

The axioms of Delphi through Apollo's oracle decree "know thyself" - and "nothing in excess" - coupled with Asclepius, a precursor of Hippocrates and his medical oath says "If you can do no good, at least do no harm."

So let's examine... We have to start somewhere. What is man?

Like poor old Oedipus if we don't know that, we don't know anything.

We are all only a moment in astronomic time, a transient guest on earth, a spore of our species, a composite of body, character, and mind, a member of a family and a community, a believer or a doubter of a faith, a unit in an economy, a citizen in a state (Durant) ... and by the end of this century we will be 9 Billion. - Should keep us humble.

From the song lyric: "I'm going to make this moment mine."

There is no remaking reality ... just take it as it comes. Hold your ground and take it as it comes. That moment will not return. Take from it the lessons, the actions and reactions contained within that reality. Gain personal strength and insight when objectifying any experience.

But who am I? Who are my forefathers? What did they look like? Do I look - like them? What did they do? What was their experiential makeup: their fears, their triumphs, their loves, their talents? What was their familial experience, their tribal fabric and their spiritual definition? Their language? What rites, rituals, ceremonies have you inherited? What food and family traditions sustain you?

What do you share with your peers, in activities, in trials, in dreams ... and there you are: Who are you? Where have you come from? Where are you going? What talents, strengths, abilities, intelligences do you have?

If you know, then the enormity of the journey yet to come, the choices yet to be made, the epiphanies, the sharing of discovery and learning, the package from your parents, your mentors, your peers, the loves yet to be shared will make it easy for you.

The life examined has, in fact, revealed the marvel from the instant of your birth (your parents will remember) to your present state of being that young woman or young man that at this moment you are and you carry with you now ALL THAT you will EVER BECOME. Now, that was a pretty easy trip wasn't it, with little anxiety and fear. Did you relax a bit?

Remember that all of us had to see the sun, the moon, the stars, rain, snow, lightning, for the first time - and hold our parent, our brother, our lover, our newborn child in our arms.

To make 1 child, it takes 2 parents, 4 grandparents, 8 great grand parents, 16 great, great grand parents, 32 great, great, great grand parents, 64 great, great, great, great grand parents, 128; 256; 512; 1024; and so on, that should give you some perspective.. (James Reaney, Colors in the Dark)

And a last reference to the theme song: "I've looked in the mirror; my world is getting clearer."

One of the greatest works of world literature, The Conference of the Birds, an allegorical masterpiece written by a mystic Persian poet, Attar, in the 13th century explores in a beautiful parable the nature of a spiritual path by "all the birds of the world" (human souls) in search of Simurgh (god of all things).

The birds meet adversity and trials and finally arrive where Simurgh is supposed to dwell. Nothing is there but when the "veils/ curtains are pulled back, mirrors are revealed." The birds see themselves reflected. You see, the journey to discover enlightenment and those meaningful timeless moments is not an outward journey but an inward, a paused introspection and analysis of where you are, what you think and what you believe, where you have come from and where you are going. You must be a seeker, with or without an attendant mystical experience. If you don't examine and ask questions, you will receive no answers nor will you be able to record those most memorable experiences - And how dull life would be if the world passed you by without those memories. You have to care and it takes real effort. With awareness comes responsibility and respect for all those sharing the moment. Each will be impacted differently. Remember those moments shared with your classmates and teammates. They will be among your memories of Ainlay.

We have survived all the vicissitudes of time and are at the end of the accumulation of all that went before - we write the next moment, the next day - literally the future is all ours to make. We have been blessed in many respects and are endowed with the potential to realize what we most desire. Do not feel unable, unwilling, uninterested in thinking for yourself. Empower yourself with the belief that there will be, in spite of everything, experiences that will touch you deeply, embrace them. Take life's highs and lows in stride. Be inspired to enrich your lives and to look beyond the moments of fleeting gratification or unhappiness to the realm of what is permanent and everlasting. It is upon that fabric where memorable and timeless moments are woven.

As a civilization, we have not eradicated the errors, prejudice and superstitions of ten thousand years and we may yet be defeated by indoctrinated ignorance.

Be cautious of man's follies and crimes, his intolerance and hatred, but find your own place among and become your own saint, statesman, inventor, scientist, poet, artist, musician, lover and philosopher....

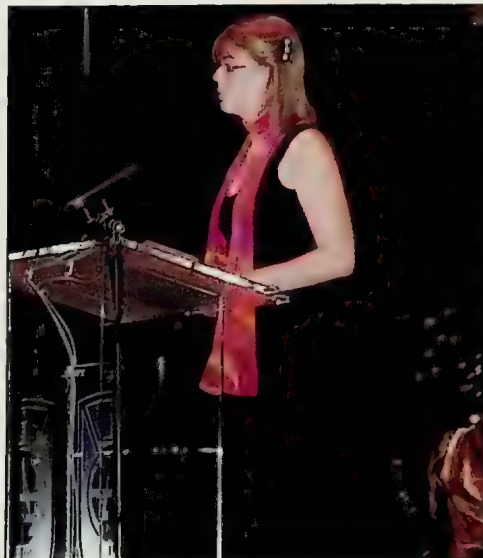

Live well, speak wisely, teach, for in the child resides the future; carve, sing, and dance to the cosmic rhythms!

There is no meaning in human existence except that which man puts in it.

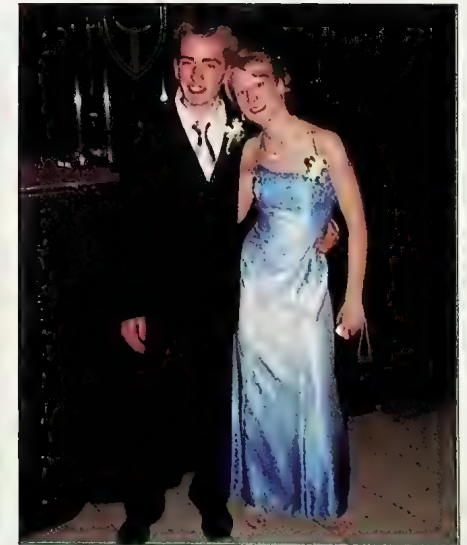

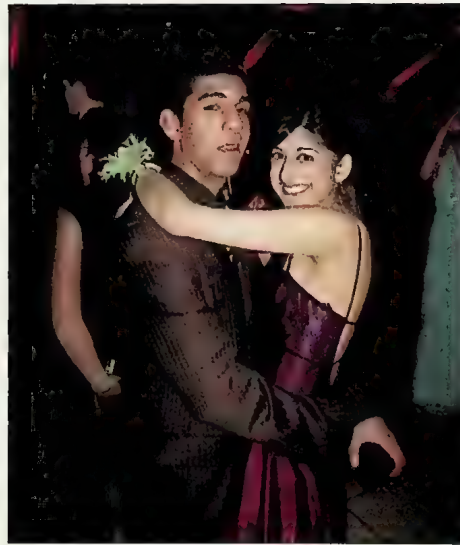

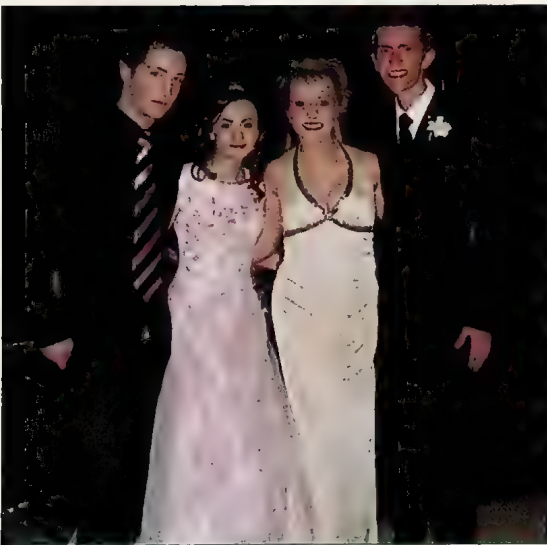

Be proud that we have all found meaning in our lives and sometimes a significance that transcends death itself.

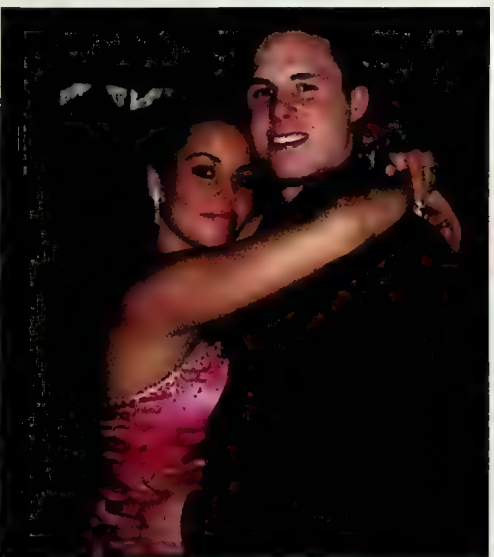

Gather up as much of your cultural heritage as you can. Cherish it, embrace it, hold it in your heart and mind forever and ultimately transmit it to your children. What an inexhaustible, nourishing and lasting legacy of timeless moments in memory and continuity you contain within you! It has been an honour for me to speak to you tonight and I thank you for this privilege. Congratulations! Reflect! Rejoice! Treat each other well! Follow your Bliss! In Omnibus Excelsior! Thank you. Good Night.

Final Thoughts - Mr. K. Wright, Yearbook Advisor

This has truly been an exciting year for me as the yearbook advisor. This is the first time that Ainlay has produced a full colour yearbook, making it the first high school in Edmonton to do so. It wasn't until November 2005 that we renegotiated our contract to make way for a new full colour book. The yearbook team scrambled to reorganize and redesign the book to take advantage of the colour printing. This made for some very exciting moments in the yearbook room as we worked page by page to create this book. Editors, Michael Tang and Amy Schwartz did a wonderful job of managing and coordinating all aspects of the yearbook. This year's staff contributed thousands of hours during lunch hours, after school and numerous Friday evenings to take photographs, design pages and meet numerous deadlines. I am continually impressed with the dedication and talent of the yearbook students. As the last page is being shipped off to the printer, the sun is shining, the wind is blowing and I am going sailing. Bon Voyage - Mr. Wright

Editor's Note

Senior Editor

Michael Tang- The last three years working on the yearbook have flown by. It has been a pleasure working with this year's talented members. I have really enjoyed the new opportunities that designing in full colour presents. It has been an honour to take a leading role in capturing and preserving the history of Ainlay for the 2005-2006 school year. I truly hope that you enjoy the book as much as we enjoyed creating it.

Editor

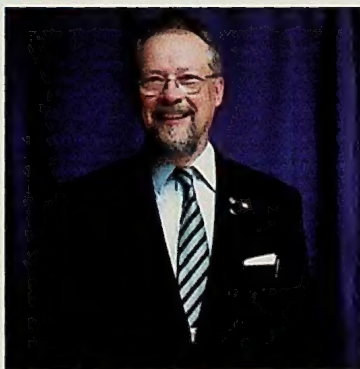

Amy Schwartz- I've had an amazing time working on the yearbook for the past two years. Thank you to everyone who has spent so many hours creating this book of wonderful memories. It's been a great learning experience for me and it was exciting to work in full colour! Finally, all is finished and another book is ready to be published. Summer's here! I'm looking forward to returning in the fall to work on next years book! :D

Retiring Staff

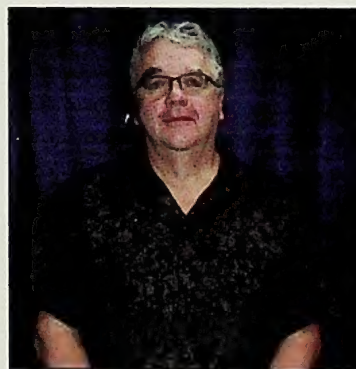

Mme. Bridges

Mme. Bridges has taught second languages, including Ukrainian, French and Spanish, for the Edmonton Public School Board for twenty-five years. In retirement, she plans to improve her Spanish and do more reading.

Mr. Saik

Two decades of rewarding, exciting challenges have served to enrich my teaching experience beyond any of my dreams. The high degree of professionalism commands respect from all who hear that you are from Harry Ainlay. What a gift I carry with me into the future!

Mr. Melnychuk

I have taught social studies, coached athletic teams and been a counselor for 32 years. I have been the Dept Head of Student Services at Ainlay for 10 years. My joy has been to help students to develop and grow and reach their potential.

Const. Green

Cst. Green has been a Police Officer since 1981 and is looking forward to the opportunity continue to educate students about choices and drug use. He and Ebony will enjoy the time they have together on the farm.
